Most Candidates Outside City Running Unopposed

No Office-Seekers For 12 Positions In Tarlton Or For Nine Offices In Darbyville Corporation

Election day will pass without a contest in most of the villages and townships of Pickaway County. A majority of the candidates are running unopposed.

No candidates are seeking the nine elective offices in Darbyville corporation and 12 jobs in Tarlton. Some offices in the townships and other villages, also are without candidates.

No one has filed for the justice of peace office in 12 townships, nor for the 14 constable vacancies. Only person seeking a constable office is Harry B. Timmons of Circleville Township.

Since there are so many offices for which no candidate has filed, a write-in vote will be necessary in the various communities and townships to fill the offices.

A person so elected will be required to file an expense account with the county board of elections and get a certificate of election after election day, the same as others elected to office.

Offices to be filled in the townships are: one trustee, one clerk, one constable, one magistrate, and two board of education members.

Villages will elect: one mayor, one clerk, one treasurer, (clerk-treasurer in Williamsport), and six council members. Some also have two board of education posts to be filled, and three board of trustees of public affairs positions.

Ohio Chief To Become Favorite Son To Foil 'Political Bosses'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio's five-term Democratic governor, Frank J. Lausche, indicated here last night that he would be a favorite son candidate for the presidential nomination next year.

But the popular Buckeye chieftain said that if he becomes the favorite son, it will not be with the idea of preventing Adlai E. Stevenson from getting the nomination.

Lausche said he doesn't know anything about and isn't encouraging a wave of praise for him as a possible Democratic presidential nominee. The talk has come from Southern Democratic governors and senators, including some enemies of Stevenson.

"I may become a favorite son to keep the Ohio delegation out of the hands of the political bosses," Lausche said. "But I am not trying to stop any candidate. I have the highest regard for Adlai Stevenson as I have for other Democrats who have been mentioned as possible nominees."

* * *

LAUSCHE SAID that in alluding to "political bosses" he wasn't shooting at friends of Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) who have said they will enter the senator's name in the May 8 Ohio primary. He said that if he makes a favorite son race, and he indicated he probably will, it will be to "keep the Ohio delegation in a position to make a free choice at the convention next year," adding:

"I don't want to see the Democratic party or the country controlled by the extreme left or the extreme right. I want both to keep to the middle of the road and avoid the extreme."

Meanwhile, Wisconsin's Gov. Walter J. Kohler said he will become a "favorite son" candidate for the GOP presidential nomination unless President Eisenhower indicates by March that he'll seek reelection.

Kohler was here for a meeting of the Governors' Conference highway committee which he heads. He said that unless the President's plans are known before the March filing deadline, he would file his own name.

"I am for President Eisenhower if he runs but otherwise I will be a candidate," Kohler said.

Hammarskjold Asks Each Side Pull Out Troops

Permanent Demarcation Line Sought By Aide To World Organization

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold took a direct hand today in seeking to settle the dispute between Israel and Egypt.

Hammarskjold called in representatives of the two countries last night and submitted a plan calling on Egypt to pull her troops out of the El Auja demilitarized zone. It also urged the setting up of a permanent demarcation line in the area.

Spokesmen for Egypt and Israel said they were cabling the proposal to their home governments.

Meanwhile, Israel said two Egyptian platoons today attacked an Israeli advanced position near the lower sector of the Gaza Strip. No action was reported along the El Auja-Nizana zone border where a blood battle was fought yesterday.

An official Israeli spokesman said today's attack was north of the Nir Izhak settlements, about two miles east of the Gaza border. He said the Israelis beat back the Egyptians with rifle and machine-gun fire with no casualties.

* * *

U. N. OFFICIALS expressed hope Hammarskjold's peace plan would reestablish order in the area, the scene of what has been described as the most serious fighting since the 1948 Palestine War.

The secretary general conferred earlier with the permanent representatives of the United States, Britain and France and was understood to have received their endorsement before going ahead with his proposal.

Hammarskjold also consulted in advance with Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, U. N. Palestine truce chief who is now en route back to the troubled Holy Land.

New 'Grippe' Vaccine Studied

10,000 GIs May Get Test Shots This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new vaccine against the "grippe" may be tested this winter on 10,000 military recruits.

Public Health Service doctors disclosed the possibility yesterday but said they must first (1) make additional safety and potency tests of the vaccine, and (2) get official military approval.

The new vaccine is designed to protect against three of the 10 or more APC viruses which cause some respiratory or cold-type illnesses. A vaccine already tested in humans is designed against only one of the APC viruses—type 3. The newer vaccine is designed against types 3, 4 and 7 which experts say "have been shown . . . to be responsible for a large part of respiratory diseases occurring in military populations."

Meanwhile the health service and Johns Hopkins University jointly announced the "successful clinical trial" of the type 3 vaccine among prisoner volunteers at the Federal Reformatory, Chillicothe, Ohio, and the Maryland Reformatory.

* * *

A TOTAL OF 83 prisoners was divided into two groups, 45 receiving vaccine, and the 39 and the 38 others serving as unvaccinated "controls."

The health department said: "Results of the trials showed that 90 per cent of the susceptible 'controls' developed 'definite' illness following induced infection. Only 29 per cent of the effectively vaccinated inmates were classified in the 'definite' illness category."

Fearful Bride Alerts Central Ohio Police

WESTERVILLE (AP)—A woman's voice, crying and asking for help, caught the attention of police radio cruisermen in many sections of Ohio early today.

It sent police scurrying about in their areas, trying to determine origin of the call on the police radio band. Reception was particularly clear in central Ohio.

Police Chief Robert W. Dahlke of Westerville finally cleared up the matter.

A recent bride, whose idenity he declined to disclose, became distraught when her husband, an Otterbein College student, failed to return home late yesterday.

She went to the two-story Westerville police and firemen's headquarters, found no one in the police station (Chief Dahlke was on patrol duty), and cried out "Oh, help me somebody."

The police radio transmitter is on the first floor of the building. In some manner her cries reached the radio transmitter. Either she had turned the transmitter on herself, or it was open when she appeared, the chief said.

Anyway, firemen on the second floor heard the cries over their receiver and rushed downstairs to find the recent bride in tears.

With the aid of police and firemen, the bride found her husband.

He was at an all-night service station, just on the point of leaving for home.

Police Nab 3 Men Sought In Burglary

Officers Halt Car On S. Court St.; Auto Had Only One License Plate

Lack of a license plate on the front of their car, plus the alert work of two Circleville policemen, resulted early today in the apprehension of three men wanted in connection with a burglary in Columbus. They were picked up here only 45 minutes after the burglary was reported.

Sgt. Charles Smith and Officer Forrest Sowards halted the car on S. Court St. at 2:48 a. m. The burglary, involving $800 worth of electrical equipment, took place at approximately 2 a. m.

Two Columbus detectives, Sgt. John Donahue and Ed Mundy, arrived here later and identified the loot found in the trio's car as that taken from the Columbus firm. The three men were identified as: Alvis Lee Smith, 24, of Columbus, driver of the car; Jewell Dean Phillips, 24, of Toler, Ky.; and Joe Martin, 24, of Kentucky.

The detectives said no formal charges have yet been placed against the three men. They said the three men have been returned to Columbus for further questioning, and that a check would be made to see if they have previous criminal records.

* * *

SGT. SMITH, along with Officer Sowards, who had just returned to duty the night before after being injured during an auto chase last weekend, noticed the car was without a front license plate and halted it.

(A law passed by the Ohio legislature last session makes it mandatory for Ohio cars to display license plates on both the front and rear, amending the old law which allowed only one plate.)

The Columbus burglary was first noticed by a merchant policeman, Art Walker, who is also a Franklin County deputy sheriff. Walker said he checked the W. Broad St. firm, which is one of his customers, at 1:45 a. m. and nothing was wrong. When he returned 15 minutes later he discovered the burglary.

However, Circleville police apparently had no idea that the trio stopped here might be connected up with the burglary. However, they found tools and equipment in the back of the car and asked Sheriff Charles Radcliff to radio to Columbus to see if any burglaries had been reported.

The sheriff did so but received a negative answer at the time. Later on, Circleville police were notified of the burglary and matched the description given of the equipment stolen with that found in the car.

Loot found in the car included: a ½-inch electric drill; one 50-foot extension cord; two "quarter" cables; a "speedmatic" portable electric saw; and surveying equipment, including tripods.

* * *

SGT. SMITH said that after Columbus authorities finish with the trio a detainer will be sent on Smith, the driver. Charges of failure to display two license plates plus no operator's license will be filed, police said.

Police Chief Elmer Merriman praised the officers for their alertness. He noted that many motorists in this area still fail to show both plates, although the law went into effect the first of October. Violators are liable for a fine, he warned.

City Safety Director Miller Fissell has continuously pointed to the "improvement" in the city police force following a "crime school" held here the first part of this year. City policemen and sheriff's deputies attended the course, covering all phases of law enforcement work, given by the Criminal Bureau of Identification from the London Prison farm.

Your Right To Know Still Being Curbed

John Q. Public's right to know what is going on in his government has been curtailed on numerous occasion regardless of whether the office - holders in charge be Republicans or Democrats.

The general said he believes in the individual as the basis of an organization.

Old Army Pals, Ike To Confer

Weekend Checkup Due To Tell Future Plans

DENVER (AP) — President Eisenhower, able to dine outside his hospital room now, looked forward to a social visit today with Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, Army chief of staff.

The White House said the two old service friends planned no discussion of national defense problems, and added they would be joined by their wives at the late afternoon meeting.

"It will be purely social," said James C. Hagerty, Eisenhower's press secretary.

Taylor, named chief of staff by Eisenhower a few months ago, is on an inspection tour of U. S. military installations.

Tomorrow the President will be visited at Fitzsimons Army Hospital by another old comrade in arms, Field Marshal Viscount Montgomery of Great Britain, deputy commander of North Atlantic Defense Forces in Europe.

Then on Sunday the President will get definite word whether he can leave the hospital and fly back to Washington a week from today, as planned tentatively by the physicians at Fitzsimons.

* * *

THE WORD WILL come from Dr. Paul Dudley White, noted Boston heart specialist, who is flying to Denver this weekend for his fourth examination of the President since he was stricken with a heart attack Sept. 24.

If White gives a go-ahead for a Nov. 1 discharge from the hospital, Eisenhower will rest that weekend at the White House in country home at Gettysburg, Pa., for further convalescence.

So far the President's return toward normal activity is right on the schedule which White and the Fitzsimons doctors forecast—first nearly a month ago and then again two weeks later.

SEOUL (AP)—More than 300 South Korean Navy officers and seamen sailed for the United States today to take over two destroyer-escorts and bring them to Korea.

West Ready To Give Russia Specific Germany Demands

GENEVA (AP)—The Western powers today prepared to confront the Soviet Union with a specific demand for all-German elections in September of 1956.

The elections would be to pick an all-German National Assembly which would write a new constitution for a reunified nation and negotiate a general peace settlement.

The Western ministers here in the Big Four conference agreed, it was learned from reliable informants, to introduce soon, perhaps today, a three-point plan for reunification. They would ask Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to join them in approving it.

It proposed:

1. Free and secret ballot throughout Germany in September 1956, to choose a new all-German National Assembly which would first draft a constitution for all Germany and select an all-German government.

2. A four-power commission, one member named by each of the Big Four powers, which would prepare, in consultation with German experts, the election law for this nationwide balloting.

* * *

THE WESTERN proposal apparently would allow the commission to consult with East German experts as well as those from the West. The proposal as it stood earlier today simply mentioned "German experts."

The commission would also supervise preparations for the elections themselves, and would oversee the actual voting to guarantee freedom.

3. The commission would be appointed in the immediate future. It would be expected to give the four governments a preliminary report by January 1956.

East-West arguments on the unification of Germany were in total disagreement as the new Western proposal came to light.

The stalemate seemed certain to hold for the two weeks remaining in the conference despite a solemn warning from British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan on the urgency of German unity.

He told the parley the great powers will face an "increasingly explosive situation" in Germany if they do not find a speedy solution to the unification problem.

But more than two hours of argument yesterday failed to produce any evidence that the beginnings of such a solution may be found here.

Soviet Foreign Ministers V. M. Molotov hardened his insistence that the Western alliance must be demolished before Russia will agree to German unity.

* * *

THE WESTERN Big Three restated with equal determination their contention that a reunified Germany allied with the West by free choice offers the best hope for future peace in Europe.

The four foreign ministers agreed to meet again today and resume their discussion but that, plus the fact that there is a German problem, was the only thing they could agree on.

10 Tough Inmates Dig Out Of Prison

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—Ten tough inmates of the tumult-ridden Washington State Penitentiary escaped last night after weeks of tunneling through seven inches of concrete and 30 feet of earth.

The escape was discovered at a 7:30 p. m. change of guards, an estimated two hours after the 10 men had crawled through the 30-inch wide tunnel to liberty just outside the west wall.

And hours later, despite a widespread cordon of scores of police assisted by four bloodhounds, no trace of the men had been found except tracks a half mile from the gaping hole in the prison side.

Dentist Convicted In Strangulation

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Dr. A. Arnold Axilrod, 50-year-old Minneapolis dentist, was convicted yesterday of first degree manslaughter in the strangling of a young woman patient.

Axilrod, married and the father of two children, was sentenced to 5 to 20 years in prison.

The defendant was charged with first degree murder in the slaying April 22 of Mrs. Mary E. Moonen, 21, a soldier's wife, who, Axilrod said, had threatened to "tell the world" that he was the father of her unborn child. Axilrod denied that he was the father. His attractive wife, Fanny, 42, sat clasping a Bible as Judge Leslie Anderson imposed sentence.

"If the physically or psychologically limited child is to have even a glimmer of a chance to develop to his maximum, he must not be hidden away, but must be able to share in the lives of normal people to the limit of his capacity," she told the National Council of Churches' conference on Churches and Social Welfare.

Seaway To Foster Big Boom, Belief

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway will foster a great boom, the president of the Great Lakes Harbors Assn. says.

John C. Beukema, speaking at the 44th annual convention of the American Assn. of Port Authorities, said yesterday the St. Lawrence problem is not one of division of present business. It will merely provide facilities for the movement of more goods, he said.

Police Chief Finds Men On The Ball

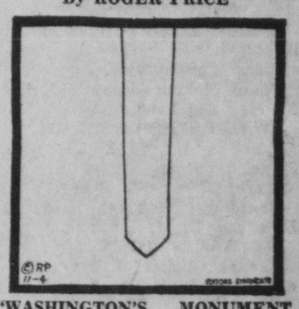

KANKAKEE, Ill. (AP) — Police Chief Wallace Flannery knows his men are following his standing order to make no exceptions in tagging cars for overparking.

Twice this week Flannery has driven into a parking space and then walked into a nearby store to get change for the meter. Both times he found tickets on his car when he returned.

After paying the second fine yesterday, the chief said: "The order still stands."

DROODLES

"WASHINGTON'S MONUMENT SEEN BY TOURIST STANDING ON HIS HEAD"

This imaginative Droodle, suggested by Mrs. James E. Sage of South Bend, Indiana, is a nice one to study while eating Upside Down Cake. It's also an excuse to remind you that many Doctors say that standing on the head is healthful, because it permtis blood to rush to your brain, it gets the lint out of your trouser cuffs and it gives your wife some needed exercise when she rushes over to grab the loose change that falls out of your pockets. I've been standing on my head almost every morning for the past year and it's very stimulating, altho to tell the truth I don't do it on purpose. It's just that my In-a-Door Bed has a weak catch and it slams itself shut every time the alarm clock goes off!

Snaggle-Tooth Cherub Club Lisps About Good Dentistry

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The only requirement for membership in a new club of second graders at the LaFayette Grade School is loss of two or three front teeth.

The organization, complete with officers and a club song, is known as the Snaggle - Toothed Cherub Club. It was formed by Mrs. Grace Cochran, teacher of the 7-year-olds.

She says the main aim is to teach children good dental care and general health practices. Instructive material is compiled on how to clean teeth and the proper foods to eat to protect new ones.

Mrs. Cochran says she knows from experience that all 39 of her pupils soon will be members. The teacher said, "We keep adding names as they lose teeth."

The youngsters wrote their own song:

"We're the Snaggled - Tooth Cherubs—see
"We've lost one tooth or three
"We laugh and lisp
"Since our teeth we have misse
"Snaggled - tooth cherubs are we."

Principal Wade Davenport, pleased with the new club, commented, "I think they'd pull teeth to get into it." But nature makes that unnecessary.

Mrs. Cochran says the No. 1 lesson is: Regardless of what you eat, the baby teeth come out, but if you eat an adequate diet and take care of your teeth, the new ones will "come in strong and pretty."

"Every year I get these little snaggle - toothed things," Mrs. Mrs. Cochran said, "and I love them so.'

"It's just a sideline," she explained. "When you have 39 of them, you have to keep a sideline going to keep it interesting. And I think they all love school."

The stalemate seemed certain to hold for the two weeks remaining in the conference despite a solemn warning from British Foreign Secretary Harold Macmillan on the urgency of German unity.

He told the parley the great powers will face an "increasingly explosive situation" in Germany if they do not find a speedy solution to the unification problem.

But more than two hours of argument yesterday failed to produce any evidence that the beginnings of such a solution may be found here.

Soviet Foreign Ministers V. M. Molotov hardened his insistence that the Western alliance must be demolished before Russia will agree to German unity.

* * *

THE WESTERN Big Three restated with equal determination their contention that a reunified Germany allied with the West by free choice offers the best hope for future peace in Europe.

The four foreign ministers agreed to meet again today and resume their discussion but that, plus the fact that there is a German problem, was the only thing they could agree on.

New 'Grippe' Vaccine Studied

10,000 GIs May Get Test Shots This Year

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new vaccine against the "grippe" may be tested this winter on 10,000 military recruits.

Public Health Service doctors disclosed the possibility yesterday but said they must first (1) make additional safety and potency tests of the vaccine, and (2) get official military approval.

The new vaccine is designed to protect against three of the 10 or more APC viruses which cause some respiratory or cold-type illnesses. A vaccine already tested in humans is designed against only one of the APC viruses—type 3. The newer vaccine is designed against types 3, 4 and 7 which experts say "have been shown . . . to be responsible for a large part of respiratory diseases occurring in military populations."

Meanwhile the health service and Johns Hopkins University jointly announced the "successful clinical trial" of the type 3 vaccine among prisoner volunteers at the Federal Reformatory, Chillicothe, Ohio, and the Maryland Reformatory.

* * *

A TOTAL OF 83 prisoners was divided into two groups, 45 receiving vaccine, and the 39 and the 38 others serving as unvaccinated "controls."

The health department said: "Results of the trials showed that 90 per cent of the susceptible 'controls' developed 'definite' illness following induced infection. Only 29 per cent of the effectively vaccinated inmates were classified in the 'definite' illness category."

Police Nab 3 Men Sought In Burglary

Officers Halt Car On S. Court St.; Auto Had Only One License Plate

Lack of a license plate on the front of their car, plus the alert work of two Circleville policemen, resulted early today in the apprehension of three men wanted in connection with a burglary in Columbus. They were picked up here only 45 minutes after the burglary was reported.

Sgt. Charles Smith and Officer Forrest Sowards halted the car on S. Court St. at 2:48 a. m. The burglary, involving $800 worth of electrical equipment, took place at approximately 2 a. m.

Two Columbus detectives, Sgt. John Donahue and Ed Mundy, arrived here later and identified the loot found in the trio's car as that taken from the Columbus firm. The three men were identified as: Alvis Lee Smith, 24, of Columbus, driver of the car; Jewell Dean Phillips, 24, of Toler, Ky.; and Joe Martin, 24, of Kentucky.

The detectives said no formal charges have yet been placed against the three men. They said the three men have been returned to Columbus for further questioning, and that a check would be made to see if they have previous criminal records.

* * *

SGT. SMITH, along with Officer Sowards, who had just returned to duty the night before after being injured during an auto chase last weekend, noticed the car was without a front license plate and halted it.

(A law passed by the Ohio legislature last session makes it mandatory for Ohio cars to display license plates on both the front and rear, amending the old law which allowed only one plate.)

The Columbus burglary was first noticed by a merchant policeman, Art Walker, who is also a Franklin County deputy sheriff. Walker said he checked the W. Broad St. firm, which is one of his customers, at 1:45 a. m. and nothing was wrong. When he returned 15 minutes later he discovered the burglary.

However, Circleville police apparently had no idea that the trio stopped here might be connected up with the burglary. However, they found tools and equipment in the back of the car and asked Sheriff Charles Radcliff to radio to Columbus to see if any burglaries had been reported.

The sheriff did so but received a negative answer at the time. Later on, Circleville police were notified of the burglary and matched the description given of the equipment stolen with that found in the car.

Loot found in the car included: a ½-inch electric drill; one 50-foot extension cord; two "quarter" cables; a "speedmatic" portable electric saw; and surveying equipment, including tripods.

* * *

SGT. SMITH said that after Columbus authorities finish with the trio a detainer will be sent on Smith, the driver. Charges of failure to display two license plates plus no operator's license will be filed, police said.

Police Chief Elmer Merriman praised the officers for their alertness. He noted that many motorists in this area still fail to show both plates, although the law went into effect the first of October. Violators are liable for a fine, he warned.

City Safety Director Miller Fissell has continuously pointed to the "improvement" in the city police force following a "crime school" held here the first part of this year. City policemen and sheriff's deputies attended the course, covering all phases of law enforcement work, given by the Criminal Bureau of Identification from the London Prison farm.

Fearful Bride Alerts Central Ohio Police

WESTERVILLE (AP)—A woman's voice, crying and asking for help, caught the attention of police radio cruisermen in many sections of Ohio early today.

It sent police scurrying about in their areas, trying to determine origin of the call on the police radio band. Reception was particularly clear in central Ohio.

Police Chief Robert W. Dahlke of Westerville finally cleared up the matter.

A recent bride, whose idenity he declined to disclose, became distraught when her husband, an Otterbein College student, failed to return home late yesterday.

She went to the two-story Westerville police and firemen's headquarters, found no one in the police station (Chief Dahlke was on patrol duty), and cried out "Oh, help me somebody."

The police radio transmitter is on the first floor of the building. In some manner her cries reached the radio transmitter. Either she had turned the transmitter on herself, or it was open when she appeared, the chief said.

Anyway, firemen on the second floor heard the cries over their receiver and rushed downstairs to find the recent bride in tears.

With the aid of police and firemen, the bride found her husband.

He was at an all-night service station, just on the point of leaving for home.

10 Tough Inmates Dig Out Of Prison

WALLA WALLA, Wash. (AP)—Ten tough inmates of the tumult-ridden Washington State Penitentiary escaped last night after weeks of tunneling through seven inches of concrete and 30 feet of earth.

The escape was discovered at a 7:30 p. m. change of guards, an estimated two hours after the 10 men had crawled through the 30-inch wide tunnel to liberty just outside the west wall.

And hours later, despite a widespread cordon of scores of police assisted by four bloodhounds, no trace of the men had been found except tracks a half mile from the gaping hole in the prison side.

Dentist Convicted In Strangulation

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Dr. A. Arnold Axilrod, 50-year-old Minneapolis dentist, was convicted yesterday of first degree manslaughter in the strangling of a young woman patient.

Axilrod, married and the father of two children, was sentenced to 5 to 20 years in prison.

The defendant was charged with first degree murder in the slaying April 22 of Mrs. Mary E. Moonen, 21, a soldier's wife, who, Axilrod said, had threatened to "tell the world" that he was the father of her unborn child. Axilrod denied that he was the father. His attractive wife, Fanny, 42, sat clasping a Bible as Judge Leslie Anderson imposed sentence.

After paying the second fine yesterday, the chief said: "The order still stands."

DROODLES

By ROGER PRICE

"WASHINGTON'S MONUMENT SEEN BY TOURIST STANDING ON HIS HEAD"

This imaginative Droodle, suggested by Mrs. James E. Sage of South Bend, Indiana, is a nice one to study while eating Upside Down Cake. It's also an excuse to remind you that many Doctors say that standing on the head is healthful, because it permtis blood to rush to your brain, it gets the lint out of your trouser cuffs and it gives your wife some needed exercise when she rushes over to grab the loose change that falls out of your pockets. I've been standing on my head almost every morning for the past year and it's very stimulating, altho to tell the truth I don't do it on purpose. It's just that my In-a-Door Bed has a weak catch and it slams itself shut every time the alarm clock goes off!

Snaggle-Tooth Cherub Club Lisps About Good Dentistry

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — The only requirement for membership in a new club of second graders at the LaFayette Grade School is loss of two or three front teeth.

The organization, complete with officers and a club song, is known as the Snaggle - Toothed Cherub Club. It was formed by Mrs. Grace Cochran, teacher of the 7-year-olds.

She says the main aim is to teach children good dental care and general health practices. Instructive material is compiled on how to clean teeth and the proper foods to eat to protect new ones.

Mrs. Cochran says she knows from experience that all 39 of her pupils soon will be members. The teacher said, "We keep adding names as they lose teeth."

The youngsters wrote their own song:

"We're the Snaggled - Tooth Cherubs—see

"We've lost one tooth or three

"We laugh and lisp

"Since our teeth we have misse

"Snaggled - tooth cherubs are we."

Principal Wade Davenport, pleased with the new club, commented, "I think they'd pull teeth to get into it." But nature makes that unnecessary.

Mrs. Cochran says the No. 1 lesson is: Regardless of what you eat, the baby teeth come out, but if you eat an adequate diet and take care of your teeth, the new ones will "come in strong and pretty."

"Every year I get these little snaggle - toothed things," Mrs. Mrs. Cochran said, "and I love them so.'

"It's just a sideline," she explained. "When you have 39 of them, you have to keep a sideline going to keep it interesting. And I think they all love school."

Hammarskjold Asks Each Side Pull Out Troops

grave concern to Israel over the attack in the demilitarized zone Wednesday night.

In Geneva, an informed source said Britain favors swift and stern U. N. condemnation of Israel in the El Sabha fighting.

In London, Britain formally protested the El Sabha attack to Israel.

In Washington, the U. S. State Department urged Israel and Egypt to hold high level peace talks instead of trying to shoot out their dispute.

Meanwhile, the Western Big Three waited for clearer reports on the situation as they pondered whether to bring the issue before the U. N. Security Council. Observers believed that the Big Three would await the reaction of Israel and Egypt to Hammarskjold's plan before making any move to convene the Council.

The three nations declared in 1950 that if they found any Middle East country was preparing to violate frontiers, they would "immediately take action, both within and outside the U. N."

THE EGYPTIANS presented a letter to the Security Council yesterday charging that Israel's presence in the El Auja zone was illegal, but it did not call for Council action.

Syria also sent a letter to the Council charging Israeli forces with firing on a Syrian frontier post.

Both Israel and Egypt today claimed they held the strategic El Sabha checkpost in the El Auja-Nizana zone, scene of a 17-hour battle Thursday. El Auja is about 50 miles south of Gaza.

U. N. truce observers in the zone reported their freedom of movement still was restricted by Israel and that they were unable to visit the El Sabha frontier area. They added they had received no reports of new fighting.

Rotary Told CIO Plan Would Be 'Too Much Money For No Work'

Members of Circleville Rotary were told Thursday that a CIO proposal to increase unemployment compensation benefits would constitute a "reckless and extremely dangerous threat to Ohio's growing economic future."

The warning came from Fred Greiner of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio Dairy Association. He was the main speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon meeting.

The CIO initiative petition, asking the hike in jobless pay, will be placed before Ohio voters at next Tuesday's election.

Greiner pointed out that Governor Lausche has described the proposal as "fantastic", and that the state legislature, with an "outstanding record in unemployment compensation Legislation," refused to recommend the CIO plan.

"The issue is as simple as a-b-c," the speaker declared. "It's too much money for not working."

* * *

AMONG POINTS stressed by Greiner in opposition to the proposal were the following:

1. It would, he said, defeat the whole purpose of unemployment compensation. "Instead of an emergency measure to tide a person over during a short period of unemployment, it would encourage continued idleness. . ."

2. "It would increase abuses and enlarge an undesirable segment of Ohio's population. . . .the professional loafer and the beneft rider."

3. "The prospect of receiving about $1.50 an hour for a 40-hour week of idleness, tax free, for nine months of doing nothing would prove irresistible to many".

4. The CIO "is trying to override the state legislature."

5. "If the CIO can get the voters to accept this proposal with its radical provisions primarily for a favored few, employed by a very large industry, it would be interpreted by the CIO as a vote of confidence. . . .for the CIO to pressure through still more self-interest legislation in later sessions of the General Assembly."

6. "EXPERIENCE to date proves that under most circumstances, six months is time enough for a man who is willing to work and capable of working to become re-employed or find other work."

7. "The CIO proposal would threaten the Ohio Unemployment Compensation Fund . . . . placing an uncessary drain on the fund during a period of high employment and prosperity, thus endangering the whole unemployment compensation program should a depression or unfavorable economic conditions develop."

8. "The proposal would ultimately cause an increase in the cost of products and services. Prices would go up."

9. "It would seriously hamper Ohio's industrial development program."

10. "It would lessen the likelihood of future wage increases, pension plans, retirement plans, and improved social security, by forcing the employing firms into an untenable financial position."

Yost Resigns Chamber Job

Circleville's Chamber of Commerce has a new chairman for its Retail Merchants Committee, highly important group acting in the interests of downtown businessmen.

George Fuhrman has been named to replace Jim Yost, who said he decided to give up the chairman's job because of the press of other work.

"I have no complaints," Yost said. "I gave up the job just because I couldn't give it anyways near the time it deserves.

"I've been a member of the Chamber now for 16 years, and most of that time — off and on — I've served as head of the retail merchants. I just felt it was time to turn it over to somebody who can give it more attention."

Yost emphasized that he will remain an interested member in all of the Chamber activities.

Driver Given Double Fine In City Court

Lawrence Blair, a motorist from Jackson, received a double fine in Circleville Municipal Court Thursday afternoon.

Blair was fined $75 and costs and sentenced to two days in jail for driving while his license was under revocation, plus $10 and costs for parking his car on a highway. He was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Carl White.

Other city court cases included the following:

Fred Fetherolf, of Kingston; $15 and costs for speeding at 65; arrested by State Patrolman Jim Cooper.

Richard Ballard, of Jackson; $15 and costs for speeding at 65; arrested by Cooper.

Jimmy McClarren, of Circleville; $20 and costs for speeding 55 in a 35 miles per hour zone; arrested by Sgt. Charles Smith.

Former CHS Grad Helps Aid General

A sidelight to the recent resignation of U. S. Marine Corps Lt. General Lewis B. (Chesty) Puller was revealed here Thursday.

Norma Jean McCain, a lieutenant junior grade Navy nurse, helped care for Gen. Puller when he was hospitalized at Camp Lejune, N. C. recently. The Marine hero had contracted pneumonia prior to his retirement and recuperated at the Marine base hospital.

Lt. McCain, who is a niece of Mrs. Frieda Hoffman of Circleville, is a graduate of Circleville High School. She completed her training at St. Elizabeth's in Dayton.

Letter To The Editor

The Circleville Herald encourages letters to the editor on pertinent subjects of local interest. However unsigned letters will be disregarded. Nom de plume will be used if requested.

EDITOR, THE HERALD:

Next Tuesday, the voters will consider Constitutional Amendment 1, a bond issue to improve our mental health program. Passage will mean borrowing $150,000,000, which will be paid by a one cent increase in the price of a package of cigarettes. Ohio has a lower levy on cigarettes than adjoining states.

The amendment specifically prohibits the use of real estate tax for this purpose. I believe that real estate is carrying enough of the burden now.

Monies are to be paid in to a capital improvement bonds retirement fund to provide for the building of mental hospitals, which are already so overcrowded and into which more than 1,000 new cases are admitted every year.

Mental sickness can happen to any of our families, so please vote for the above mentioned Amendment 1.

Your State Representative,
Ed Wallace

James A. Harper, 25, said he saw Lopez brush a car while driving, "so I followed him and made him stop."

grave concern to Israel over the attack in the demilitarized zone Wednesday night.

In Geneva, an informed source said Britain favors swift and stern U. N. condemnation of Israel in the El Sabha fighting.

In London, Britain formally protested the El Sabha attack to Israel.

In Washington, the U. S. State Department urged Israel and Egypt to hold high level peace talks instead of trying to shoot out their dispute.

Meanwhile, the Western Big Three waited for clearer reports on the situation as they pondered whether to bring the issue before the U. N. Security Council. Observers believed that the Big Three would await the reaction of Israel and Egypt to Hammarskjold's plan before making any move to convene the Council.

The three nations declared in 1950 that if they found any Middle East country was preparing to violate frontiers, they would "immediately take action, both within and outside the U. N."

THE EGYPTIANS presented a letter to the Security Council yesterday charging that Israel's presence in the El Auja zone was illegal, but it did not call for Council action.

Syria also sent a letter to the Council charging Israeli forces with firing on a Syrian frontier post.

Both Israel and Egypt today claimed they held the strategic El Sabha checkpost in the El Auja-Nizana zone, scene of a 17-hour battle Thursday. El Auja is about 50 miles south of Gaza.

U. N. truce observers in the zone reported their freedom of movement still was restricted by Israel and that they were unable to visit the El Sabha frontier area. They added they had received no reports of new fighting.

Plans Set To Open First-Aid Classes

Civil Defense Director Bernard Tait has announced that classes in first-aid will be resumed here around the middle of the month.

Enough equipment to train about 50 persons has been assembled for the classes, including a screen and projector to show the most modern methods in life-saving during war or peacetime disasters. Under tentative plans, the first class in the new series will be held Nov. 17 in Pickaway County common pleas courtroom.

When the classes were first tried here they drew a large attendance, and Tait expressed hope that "all of those interested this time will be able to participate from the beginning."

Those who wish to enroll should write or phone Tait at 811 N. Court St. His phone number is 1019.

New Patrol Listing Passes Up District

Circleville will not get an extra state patrolman for the time being, according to an announcement by the latest patrol training school.

Previously, this area has been able to get one of the graduates from the training school to augment the two patrolmen already on duty here. However, the latest list does not show any men assigned to this area.

Another training school will begin on Nov. 14 and will last approximately 14 weeks. Anyone from this area who would be interested in this kind of work is asked to get in touch with the patrol.

Applicants must be between the ages of 21 and 35 and have a high school education or its equivalent. Trainees are paid $176 a month and receive room, board and uniforms. Pay increases come when they are assigned to regular duty.

Major Sentenced To Hard Labor

FT. MEADE, Md. (AP)—Maj. Ronald E. Alley today faces the stiffest sentence yet given an Army officer for cooperating with the Communists while a prisoner of war in Korea.

An Army court-martial yesterday sentenced the 35-year-old artillery officer from Bar Harbor, Maine, to 10 years at hard labor, ordered him dismissed from service and to forfeit all pay.

Rotary Told CIO Plan Would Be 'Too Much Money For No Work'

Members of Circleville Rotary were told Thursday that a CIO proposal to increase unemployment compensation benefits would constitute a "reckless and extremely dangerous threat to Ohio's growing economic future."

The warning came from Fred Greiner of Columbus, executive secretary of the Ohio Dairy Association. He was the main speaker at the weekly Rotary luncheon meeting.

The CIO initiative petition, asking the hike in jobless pay, will be placed before Ohio voters at next Tuesday's election.

Greiner pointed out that Governor Lausche has described the proposal as "fantastic", and that the state legislature, with an "outstanding record in unemployment compensation Legislation," refused to recommend the CIO plan.

"The issue is as simple as a-b-c," the speaker declared. "It's too much money for not working."

* * *

AMONG POINTS stressed by Greiner in opposition to the proposal were the following:

1. It would, he said, defeat the whole purpose of unemployment compensation. "Instead of an emergency measure to tide a person over during a short period of unemployment, it would encourage continued idleness. . ."

2. "It would increase abuses and enlarge an undesirable segment of Ohio's population. . . .the professional loafer and the benefit rider."

3. "The prospect of receiving about $1.50 an hour for a 40-hour week of idleness, tax free, for nine months of doing nothing would prove irresistible to many".

4. The CIO "is trying to override the state legislature."

5. "If the CIO can get the voters to accept this proposal with its radical provisions primarily for a favored few, employed by a very large industry, it would be interpreted by the CIO as a vote of confidence. . . .for the CIO to pressure through still more self-interest legislation in later sessions of the General Assembly."

6. "EXPERIENCE to date proves that under most circumstances, six months is time enough for a man who is willing to work and capable of working to become re-employed or find other work."

7. "The CIO proposal would threaten the Ohio Unemployment Compensation Fund . . . . placing an uncessary drain on the fund during a period of high employment and prosperity, thus endangering the whole unemployment compensation program should a depression or unfavorable economic conditions develop."

8. "The proposal would ultimately cause an increase in the cost of products and services. Prices would go up."

9. "It would seriously hamper Ohio's industrial development program."

10. "It would lessen the likelihood of future wage increases, pension plans, retirement plans, and improved social security, by forcing the employing firms into an untenable financial position."

Yost Resigns Chamber Job

Circleville's Chamber of Commerce has a new chairman for its Retail Merchants Committee, highly important group acting in the interests of downtown businessmen.

George Fuhrman has been named to replace Jim Yost, who said he decided to give up the chairman's job because of the press of other work.

"I have no complaints," Yost said. "I gave up the job just because I couldn't give it anyways near the time it deserves.

"I've been a member of the Chamber now for 16 years, and most of that time — off and on — I've served as head of the retail merchants. I just felt it was time to turn it over to somebody who can give it more attention."

Yost emphasized that he will remain an interested member in all of the Chamber activities.

Richard Ballard, of Jackson; $15 and costs for speeding at 65; arrested by Cooper.

Jimmy McClarren, of Circleville; $20 and costs for speeding 55 in a 35 miles per hour zone; arrested by Sgt. Charles Smith.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Officials in both the Truman and Eisenhower administration have put blocks in the way of a fully free flow of information from government agencies when the information did not involve national security.

Both Democrats and Republicans, depending upon which of them was running the government at the time, have accused each other of suppressing legitimate news.

Newspapermen — particularly through the American Society of Newspaper Editors and the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., have banged away at the government, seeking to force out more information.

In the past two days the Eisenhower administration got a double jolt on this score: From a congressional committee and from a special report of the American Civil Liberties Union which studied the problem.

And next week the House committee starts public hearings in its investigation of alleged news suppression. That investigation will last into 1956.

During the Korean War — in September 1951 — President Truman set up strict controls on the release of information from government officials which would aid the enemy. This covered all of the government.

Truman said no censorship was intended, and he instructed agency heads not to use his order to suppress nonsecurity information to cover up mistakes. This left a great many editors unsatisfied. They blistered Truman's order.

They considered the order so broad that it was like an umbrella under which agency heads could conceal information that was embarrassing to them or which they didn't want known for other reasons that did not involve security.

Late in 1953 President Eisenhower narrowed down the field of government agencies which had had the right under Truman's order to withhold information. He took it away from 29 agencies, but still left it with 16.

Under Eisenhwoer's order, information supposedly was to be withheld only if its release endangered security. It could be withheld only if it was marked "top secret," "secret", or confidential." That seemed simple enough.

But the ACLU in a 70-page report Thursday said all Eisenhower's order did was eliminate some of the "more glaring absurdities" in Truman's order. These two orders of Truman and Eisenhower were the background for what follows.

This year the Democratic-run Government operations Committee of the House instructed a subcommittee—headed by Rep. Moss (D-Calif)—to investigate the whole government's handling of information. Monday it begins hearings.

But in getting ready for these hearings Moss' group last summer sent a list of 80 questions to 63 executive agencies about their information policies. . . on Wednesday the subcommittee issued a 552-page summary of the replies.

This summary showed that about 30 classifications have been added by the individual agencies to the three which Eisenhower authorized.

Here are some of the classifications being used by agencies to keep information away from newsmen and the public; not for publication; official use only; for administrative use only; for official distribution; administratively restricted.

Thursday the ACLU produced its report on government suppression of news. It had commissioned a New York newspaperman, Allen Raymond to do the job because freedom of information is basic to the ACLU's work and operations.

Raymond turned out a highly critical study. He said: "Invisible government is now worse than at any time in many years. These abuses have curtailed the power of the press and of Congress itself to be of service to the people by finding out what goes on in government."

The report said it is a fair consensus among Washington correspondents that abuses of the power in federal agencies to suppress information of value and interest to the nation were "never so rampant as now."

That meant the Eisenhower administration was worse than Truman's in holding back information. While he was at it, Raymond took a crack at Congress for the many times its committees make important decisions on legislation behind closed doors which prevent the public from knowing who said or did what.

1956 Business Forecasts Pop Out All Over

They Are Coming Early This Year; Nearly All Highly Optimistic

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Business forecasts for 1956 are popping out all over the place today — and way ahead of schedule.

Businessmen usually don't indulge in the gentle art of soothsaying before mid-December. This year they're out in force already.

And with few exceptions they're predicting a continuation of good times at least until midyear.

Some guess that 1956 will see sizable more prosperity than 1955. Most, however, hold that the rate of gain will slow down from now on, but with times fully as good and maybe better than at present.

The reason people are curious about next year at so early a date may be two-fold: 1. With business so unexpectedly good, many are asking, "How long can it last"; 2. The President's illness focused attention early on what might happen to business in the coming year.

Even at the time he was stricken, most businessmen agreed that the momentum of the boom would carry through the rest of this year. Now, six weeks later, it's generally agreed that business confidence hasn't been weakened.

In the six weeks there have been announcments of new plans for building more plants and for increasing industrial capacity by adding improved equipment.

Industries included in these new plans for construction (much of it next year) are: Steel, oil, chemicals, glass, paper, aluminum, aviation, electrical equipment, motors and utilities.

With so much building assured, the boom will have one of its props well bolstered. The home building industry also predicts more than one million new homes will be built next year, down only a little from this year. The other big prop, the auto industry, is especially vocal right now with predictions of another big year ahead.

Two items this week point up what businessmen are expecting just ahead. New York Central announced it will place orders for 14,750 freight cars, costing 118 million dollars. They will take a lot of steel.

Inland Steel Co. says demand for steel is so heavy that it is setting up a new system of allocating deliveries to its customers in the first months of 1956.

Many of the nation's top business executives took the occasion of reporting to their stockholders on record earnings for the first nine months of this year to do a little predicting. Most said the final months of this year would be as good or better. And several said the prospects for the first six months of 1956 were very bright.

A poll of business executives by Dun & Bradstreet show two thirds of them expecting their own company's sales in the first three months of 1956 to be larger than in the first three months of this year. Well over half of them expect their profits to be higher also. Two thirds of them thought this would enable them to absorb higher labor and material costs without raising their selling prices.

With all this optimism about good times continuing, there are nevertheless a few cassandras.

These warn of trouble spots that might develop: 1. Falling farm income; 2. Soaring record consumer debts and mortgage totals; 3. The chance that the present trend toward building up inventories might lead to a glut and thus to a cutback in orders; 4. The unrest in a world still just testing out "the spirit of Geneva"; and 5. The uncertainties that plague every presidential election year and threaten to be unusually worrisome in the coming one.

But even the worriers agree that real trouble hasn't shown on the horizon yet. So the businessmen now predicting good times in 1956. may very ell be proven rght.

'Integration' Only Big Word In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) —Integration is just a big word in the dictionary for children of a half dozen races and nationalities at the Lincoln Grade School.

The youngsters who frolic on the playground and walk arm-in-arm through the corridors apparently have shown no interest in the historic end this fall of segregation.

The school was one of those desegregating last month and Mrs. Nina Birkhead, the principal, said she was "almost disappointed" at the smoothness of integration.

"I had expected surely there would be a number of problems to work out," she commented.

The school has 48 Negro children among its 500 pupils. There are nearly 50 Indian and Mexican children, 3 German-born youngsters, 3 from the Philippines and one whose mother waws Japanese.

Mrs. Birkhead said the Negro children have brought sunny "singsongs" to the school.

Original Lincoln School students, she said, "just opened up their arms and took everybody in."

The children's acceptance of integration has been reflected in the school's Parent Teacher Association. Five Negro mothers attended the first meeting and one was named hospitality chairman.

Refugees Flee

BERLIN (AP) — The number of refugees fleeing East Germany hit a record level last month. The total arriving in West Berlin was 21,555, an increase of 3,000 over September, and the highest figure since June 1953.

Cleveland Slayer Is Freed By Jury

CLEVELAND (AP)—A jury yesterday acquitted Glenn Shelton of a second degree murder charge in the fatal shooting of his 35-year-old stepson, John D. Howard.

Shelton and his wife, Maudie Howard Shelton, 53, testified Howard attacked Shelton with a knife last Thanksgiving Day. They said Howard protested when Shelton ordered him out of his home as Howard prepared to light a cigarette.

1956 Business Forecasts Pop Out All Over

They Are Coming Early This Year; Nearly All Highly Optimistic

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — Business forecasts for 1956 are popping out all over the place today — and way ahead of schedule.

Businessmen usually don't indulge in the gentle art of soothsaying before mid-December. This year they're out in force already.

And with few exceptions they're predicting a continuation of good times at least until midyear.

Some guess that 1956 will see sizable more prosperity than 1955. Most, however, hold that the rate of gain will slow down from now on, but with times fully as good and maybe better than at present.

The reason people are curious about next year at so early a date may be two-fold: 1. With business so unexpectedly good, many are asking, "How long can it last"; 2. The President's illness focused attention early on what might happen to business in the coming year.

Even at the time he was stricken, most businessmen agreed that the momentum of the boom would carry through the rest of this year. Now, six weeks later, it's generally agreed that business confidence hasn't been weakened.

In the six weeks there have been announcments of new plans for building more plants and for increasing industrial capacity by adding improved equipment.

Industries included in these new plans for construction (much of it next year) are: Steel, oil, chemicals, glass, paper, aluminum, aviation, electrical equipment, motors and utilities.

With so much building assured, the boom will have one of its props well bolstered. The home building industry also predicts more than one million new homes will be built next year, down only a little from this year. The other big prop, the auto industry, is especially vocal right now with predictions of another big year ahead.

Two items this week point up what businessmen are expecting just ahead. New York Central announced it will place orders for 14,750 freight cars, costing 118 million dollars. They will take a lot of steel.

Inland Steel Co. says demand for steel is so heavy that it is setting up a new system of allocating deliveries to its customers in the first months of 1956.

Many of the nation's top business executives took the occasion of reporting to their stockholders on record earnings for the first nine months of this year to do a little predicting. Most said the final months of this year would be as good or better. And several said the prospects for the first six months of 1956 were very bright.

A poll of business executives by Dun & Bradstreet show two thirds of them expecting their own company's sales in the first three months of 1956 to be larger than in the first three months of this year. Well over half of them expect their profits to be higher also. Two thirds of them thought this would enable them to absorb higher labor and material costs without raising their selling prices.

With all this optimism about good times continuing, there are nevertheless a few cassandras.

These warn of trouble spots that might develop: 1. Falling farm income; 2. Soaring record consumer debts and mortgage totals; 3. The chance that the present trend toward building up inventories might lead to a glut and thus to a cutback in orders; 4. The unrest in a world still just testing out "the spirit of Geneva"; and 5. The uncertainties that plague every presidential election year and threaten to be unusually worrisome in the coming one.

But even the worriers agree that real trouble hasn't shown on the horizon yet. So the businessmen now predicting good times in 1956. may very ell be proven rght.

'Integration' Only Big Word In Oklahoma

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) —Integration is just a big word in the dictionary for children of a half dozen races and nationalities at the Lincoln Grade School.

The youngsters who frolic on the playground and walk arm-in-arm through the corridors apparently have shown no interest in the historic end this fall of segregation.

The school was one of those desegregating last month and Mrs. Nina Birkhead, the principal, said she was "almost disappointed" at the smoothness of integration.

"I had expected surely there would be a number of problems to work out," she commented.

The school has 48 Negro children among its 500 pupils. There are nearly 50 Indian and Mexican children, 3 German-born youngsters, 3 from the Philippines and one whose mother waws Japanese.

Mrs. Birkhead said the Negro children have brought sunny "singsongs" to the school.

Original Lincoln School students, she said, "just opened up their arms and took everybody in."

The children's acceptance of integration has been reflected in the school's Parent Teacher Association. Five Negro mothers attended the first meeting and one was named hospitality chairman.

Jesus Meets Human Needs

HE PERFORMS MIRACLES OF HEALING

Scripture—Luke 5:1—6:16.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

THE TIME of the incidents which took place in the portion of the New Testament assigned to today's lesson is reckoned to be the summer and autumn of 28 A.D., and the place is for the most part, the city of Capernaum at the north end of the Sea of Galilee.

Jesus' fame had spread tremendously, so that wherever He went people followed Him, some to receive healing, others to listen to His words.

"As the people pressed upon Him" as he stood on the seashore, Jesus noticed two ships by the sea but no fishermen in them. He stepped into one ship, and asked Simon Peter, a fisherman, if he would take it a little further out into the water. Peter (or Simon) did so, and Christ preached to the people on shore from the boat.

After the others had gone Jesus told Simon to take the ship out into deep water and drop the nets over the side. Simon said they had fished all night with no results, but he did as he was told and the result was that so heavy was the catch that the net broke, and Simon's partners on shore were called to help.

Simon Peter was so overcome at this miracle, that he threw himself at Jesus' feet, and admitted that he was a sinful man. James and John, the sons of Zebedee, Peter's partners, were also overcome by this occurrence, so that the three brought their ships to land and followed the Lord.

When Jesus was in "a certain city," a poor leper came to Him, saying, "Lord, if Thou wilt, Thou canst make me clean."

This terrible disease not only causes great suffering, but excludes the victim from any contact with others. Lepers were obliged to cry out, "Unclean, unclean," if anyone approached them. What a dreadful, lonely, suffering life these poor creatures led.

No one dare touch a person so afflicted, but Jesus—the Fearless One—"Put forth His hand, and touched him, saying, "I will, be thou clean," and immediately the leprosy left him.

Jesus told the man to go to the temple and be formally cleansed according to the Mosaic law, and to tell no one of his healing. Evidently he did not do as he was told, thinking, possibly, that he was doing Christ a favor by spreading word of the miracle. At any rate Jesus' fame spread so much that He withdrew to the wilderness and prayed.

Then one day, when some Pharisees and doctors of the law were present, coming from different towns, some men wanted to bring a man who had been taken with palsy to Jesus.

The crowd was so numerous that they could not bring him near the Lord, so they took him up on the housetop and let him down through the tiling with his couch. The teacher here should, if possible, tell the children how the houses of Israel were built so that they could understand how this was done.

When Jesus saw the man He said, "Man, thy sins are forgiven thee." The Pharisees were angered at this, thinking, "Who is this which speaketh blasphemies: Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

Jesus knew what they were thinking, and He said, "What reason ye in your hearts, whether it would be easier to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk," and to the man He said, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thy house," and the man did so.

One day Jesus saw a publican named Levi—Matthew—who was also an outcast from the rest of the Jews because he worked for the Roman government. Jesus called upon him to follow Him, and he did.

That night Levi gave a great feast at his home for his publican friends, and Jesus was the honored guest. The scribes and Pharisees murmured against Him because he was eating with sinners. But Jesus rebuked them by saying: "They that are whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Then they found fault with Jesus saying that He and His disciples did not fast according to the law. To that Christ replied that the children of the bridechamber would not be likely to fast while the bridegroom was with them, but when the bridegroom had gone from them, was the time to fast. He was here referring to Himself as the bridegroom, and suggesting that He would not be with them always—prophesying His death on the Cross.

If the teacher has time, the episode of the walk through the field on the Sabbath can be mentioned, and the miracle of the man with the withered hand who was healed in the synagogue on the Sabbath—further infuriating the Pharisees.

In Luke 6:13-16, the writer tells of Jesus calling His disciples together and appointing the Twelve Apostles to carry on His work.

INTERPRETING MARKET

FINANCIAL experts are still speculating as to what caused the New York stock market to take a steep nosedive when President Eisenhower's illness was announced, recover partially and then fall back again.

In a period of unprecedented prosperity the stock market would not normally decline. Stock prices have, to be sure, already reflected most of the increased corporation earnings. But all except a minority of forecasters predict that prosperity at somewhere near the present level will continue into the indefinite future.

Why, then, should the quoted value of corporation shares take a nosedive? There are some who whisper darkly that potent speculators can manipulate the market, shake out the small fry, pick up their dumped holdings and later take a profit.

But against that theory must be a psychological fear among speculators that a downward plunge might become uncontrollable, with disaster to themselves.

The best explanation of the slight decline in market quotations seems to be that the rise had been too rapid, and a period of readjustment was due.

DISTURBING DISCOVERY

MAJOR SCIENTIFIC discoveries formerly evoked laudatory comments about "the steady advance of progress" and so forth. But the slight chill that ran up the spine at the news of the discovery of a new atomic particle by University of California scientists is proof that mankind is less confident today.

Prof. Ernest O. Lawrence, famed nuclear scientist who headed the radiation research team, said the new atomic particle can annihilate the basic building block of all matter. He predicted the find will open the way for "an exciting new round of atomic discoveries."

To a world that has learned that momentous discoveries in nuclear physics brought the A-bomb and the H-bomb the latest news has some uncomfortable aspects.

The Atomic Energy Commission hastened to say there was no immediate practical application to the discovery. But that's what most experts said about theories which years later led to the A-bomb.

THE THANKSGIVING BIRD

TURKEYS WILL be slightly less plentiful and probably cost a nickel a pound more than last year, according to advance news of the Thanksgiving bird situation. The reason is that the total turkey crop will number perhaps 3 million less than last year.

Turkey prices thus will fit into the overall price picture, contrary to the trend of other farm products. Automobiles cost more, newsprint costs more, shoes will cost more—according to predictions—and now turkeys.

No doubt the government's price index will continue to show that prices are stable, that there has been no change in three years, etc. Perhaps this result will be achieved by substituting hog prices for those of turkeys.

George E. Sokolsky's

These Days

As recently as April 11, 1955, I find that Tass broadcasted in English from Moscow an article from Pravda written by V. Medvedev entitled "Colonialism Under the Guise of Defense."

This article indicates clearly that Soviet Russia had already fixed upon a policy of getting even with the United States and the NATO powers for the Turko-Iraqi Pact, which finally appeared in the form of arming those Moslem powers in the Middle East that were not associated with the West or that had grown antagonistic, as Egypt has, to Western influences. In this article appear these two paragraphs:

"In this case, the imperialists of the United States and Britain are acting jointly against the national interests of the Arab peoples. They want to disunite and weaken the Arab peoples in order to break their staunchness and solidarity, involve them in the gambling plans of another war, and use them as cannon fodder.

"Thus, the present tactics of the colonial powers unwittingly expose the entire falsehood and hypocrisy of the talks about 'defense,' for which purposes the regional Turko-Iraqi Military Pact was allegedly organized. In reality, it is a matter of setting up another aggressive bloc in the Near and Middle East as an organic continuation of the North Atlantic alliance."

Further, Medvedev says:

"The intrigues of the American and British imperialists in the Near East arouse indignation and protests of the Arab peoples. It is perfectly obvious that the attempts of the American-British imperialists to inveigle the countries of the Arab East into the aggressive blocs rally still more the people of these countries to fight against the colonialists who entertain the hope of spreading enmity between different Arab countries with the help of arms, and to implant their colonialism once again."

Colonel Nasser of Egypt visited India during April, the period of the Bandung and Delhi Conferences to which Israel was the only important Asiatic nation not to be invited. It was undoubtedly at these conferences between Nasser and Nehru that the Egyptian arms deal was arranged. On April 15, Nasser addressed both houses of the Indian Parliament, in the course of which he said:

"Egypt would collaborate with India and other nations to maintain peace, to struggle by all their means for independence, justice, and prosperity of their nations, and for the principles which were dear to humanity and the sacred heritage of civilization. It was time for India and Egypt to continue what they had begun once as the great builders of civilization. The torch had never fallen from the hands of their ancestors, and it was their duty now to make that torch illuminate more."

It was at Bandung that Nehru was so ultra-pro-Soviet that he was repudiated by other Asiatic nations, but Nasser sought and achieved an alliance with Nehru, despite Nehru's pro-Soviet orientation. Nehru has since then almost been a spokesman for Russia in the outer-world through Krishna Menon. The "Hindustan Standard" is quoted by the official "Information Service of India," in a broadcast, as saying:

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

DOC STOPPED beaming when Lois remarked that a heart specialist had given Roger a clean bill of health; he watched her steadily. He knows Roger's heart was sound but he won't tell me the truth, she thought. He can't afford to; he's the infallible old Doc. He'll never admit he made a mistake. And it's more than a mistake. If I could smell gas ten days after Roger died—

"The best specialists can be wrong," he said. "There have been a lot of cases. They tell a man he's all right and he walks out of the consulting room and falls dead on the street." He added casually, "I didn't know Roger had seen Jane since the divorce."

"They ran across each other by accident in New York. Mrs. Brindle thought," Lois added, "he looked depressed."

Doc rubbed his hand over his chin. "Too bad," he said sadly, "for her to come back and stir things up, Dog-in-the-manger stuff, as though Roger couldn't be happy with anyone but her. He was the least depressed man I ever knew." He looked ostentatiously at his watch. "Well, Mrs. Fleming, I'm mighty glad you dropped in. I'll try to think up some stories about Roger for those articles." He scraped back his chair. "He wrote about me to the point," he said heartily, "where so many people knew me by name that it might make the stories better to say I told 'em."

"Oh, of course," Lois agreed. With this approach she was completely at home.

He took her hand in his and patted it. The beam was working once more. "Don't let anyone give you any—funny ideas about Roger. We want those articles to be the kind he'd be proud of, don't we? Sure?" He patted her hand again and Lois wondered wildly if he would offer her a lollypop. "And the kind Carol can sign with a clear conscience. Sure we do. There's always a lot of gossip about a man as famous as Roger. But you know that yourself. You've come across the troublemakers before. You'll hear things about why he kept the Hatterys around. But don't you pay any attention. Ethel was a fine secretary and he was mighty nice to her husband, considering what Joe is. You want to be cautious about listening to anything Joe has to say. Criminal, you know." He shook his head. "But that was Roger. Too kind for his own good."

He led her to the outer door. "Helen and I want you to come to supper some night. She'll call you. 'Bye now."

Well, Lois thought as she walked away from the house, conscious that Doc, in full view of the green, was beaming after her retreating figure, well, that's that. The man is lying his head off. Roger Brindle was killed and I can't pretend it isn't so. But what should I do? If I go to the police they'll laugh at me. Dr. Thomas is well known; they'll take his word. It would be easy to accept that, to tell myself I can't do anything on my own and anyhow it doesn't concern me. Only, she admitted, you can't live like that. This was going to be unpleasant but she had to go ahead.

What now? She saw a clock on the town hall. Two-thirty. Across the street was a chain grocery store with a succession of vehicles turning in to its spacious parking lot at the back: shining station wagons, Cadillacs, a Model T Ford. A few farmers walked down the street and women in housedresses, women in slacks, women in blue jeans, women in shorts. The fewer clothes, the surer one was that they were New Yorkers. The natives kept their clothes on. There was a gift shop, which also had a lending library and sold bus tickets; a post office, an ivy-colored red-brick house that had been turned into a library. Lois turned abruptly and went up the steps.

The library was cooler than the street and quiet, the silence broken only by the gasping whir of an electric fan that needed oil. On either side of the entrance were rooms lined with books so badly lighted that it was difficult to decipher the titles. At a center table in the room to the left sat an elderly woman.

Lois went up to the table and the woman looked up at her.

"I am Lois Fleming. Mr. Kibbee was telling me about you this morning. He said you'd been his teacher when he was a boy."

The librarian smiled. "His and Roger Brindle's. They were in the same class. Remember it as if it were yesterday. Better than if it were yesterday. Albert always was a little runt and he was pint-sized then; and Roger just towered over the class. But Albert was the brains, he was the smart one. In a way, that is. He'd have been smarter, of course, to see Roger wasn't real."

Lois snapped to attention. This woman had seen the intangible quality which Jane Brindle had mentioned. The librarian observed Lois' expression and her own was shrewd.

"David and Goliath," she said unexpectedly. "You're no fool. Nice type. You can get people talking but you're not taken in. That's the thing. Not to be taken in. You've got to watch that when people start telling you about Roger. He had this town hypnotized; of course, he was the only celebrity who'd settled here since 1803 so people made a lot of him.

"There are some who'll tell you what a good friend Roger was, just so you'll know they knew him. People who like to touch the fringes of a famous person as though some of the fame would rub off on them. But the ones to look out for, if you want the truth, are those who really believed in him. Take Albert Kibbee, for instance." She shook her head. "Roger wasn't a man to Albert, he was a cult. Bessie Kibbee had no reason to love Roger, even if he did support them. Always in second place. Not like Carol, who has to be first, regardless. And as for Clyde—of all the neglected children! If he resented Roger I'm the one who would never blame him, especially as I hear that he's fallen for Carol's little niece and—"

She stopped to tell a schoolboy where he would find books on aeronautics and turned back to Lois as though there had been no interruption. "But then I sized Roger up a long time ago. I can remember as if it were yesterday when his mother died; got thrown off a horse when she was riding with another man. Her husband, who was a poor stick anyhow, shot himself. So the boy was left an orphan with some strait-laced relatives. What was their name now? I had it right on the tip of my tongue."

DIET AND HEALTH

Diet With Aid Of Sugar

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

DOES sugar have a place in a reducing diet? You bet it does!

Sugar, you see, actually helps you get rid of fat.

When you reduce, you literally are burning fat. Without a sugar intake, the fat will be only partially consumed and the poisonous waste products will flood your system, distorting the body's functions and causing acidosis.

To Build Tissue

You not only want to burn fat, but you also want to build up normal tissue. This requires the help of protein.

We know that more protein is available for tissue building by your body if your diet also includes carbohydrates.

Consequently, although you may consume large quantities of protein, a good portion of it will not be used for tissue building unless you take a little sugar, too.

Included In Diet

A reducing diet, therefore, must include a little sugar as well as increased milk and meat allowances, to enable those valuable proteins you eat to be used for constructive purposes. Jelly for your bread or toast is an excellent way of getting this needed sugar.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

W. H.: Can any disease other than rheumatic fever cause a child's sedimentation rate to go up?

Answer: Yes, many infectious diseases can cause the sedimentation rate to rise.

Money Give-Away Exciting

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Giving away money can be almost as exciting as winning it.

Jack Barry says he gets all stirred up inside when he dishes out the big dough, even though it comes out of a sponsor's pocket and not his own.

Barry, master of ceremonies on the new $100,000 give-away show, "The Big Surprise," on occasion has found that a question can become as big an ordeal to him as it is to the contestant.

"The tension builds up in you," he remarked, "because you sometimes get as deeply involved emotionally with the contestants in the 20 minutes you deal with them as you would if you had known them for 20 years.

'When they win, a wave of excitement hits you, too; a feeling which lasts until you suddenly realize it is really somebody else who won the money and not you."

However, Barry can console himself with the thought that after all he doesn't have to borrow money to meet his grocery bill. TV emcees aren't paid off in peanuts.

And right now, Barry is riding high financially as the new king of the giveaway, a position he seems likely to hold until someone dreams up a program on which the sponsor will reward the winning contestant with the key to Fort Knox.

In addition to acting as little shepherd of the $100,000 prize, Jack also serves as producer and emcee for three other programs — "Life Begins at 80," "Juvenile Jury," and "Winky-Dink and You." Whether you're just learning to talk or are living on borrowed time, Jack has a question to ask you on a program tailored to your age level.

Barry is typical of the new type of television emcee, who is brightly eager to shower you with cash if you can show your head holds even the smallest nugget of knowledge.

The old style emcee often had a different aim—to see that only a certain amount of the sponsor's money was given away. Sometimes they had it neatly figured out how often they wanted the jackpot won. And if a particularly bright contestant threatened to upset their financial schedule they had a number of sure-fire ways to see he didn't hit the jackpot.

One was the filibuster technique. The emcee would confuse a contestant by rapid-fire chatter until the gong rang ending his time to answer the question.

There was also the "soft-death" approach. The emcee would keep cooing, "Remember you have just 30 seconds. You now have just 15 seconds. Ooooh, there's the gong. Sorry, your time is up."

And, of course, the emcee always had one final ace up his sleeve—the impossible question, one that would stump even a Greek oracle.

Barry says the attitude on the new huge giveaway program is just the opposite.

"They've found out the money is less important than the good will of the audience," he said. "The more money we give away, the happier people will be, the more they'll watch the show and the more they'll buy the sponsor's product."

Barry also pointed out that the method of picking contestants also has changed.

"Instead of grabbing anybody who wanders into the studio with an out-of-town accent," he said, "an effort is made to find people who are both deserving and interesting. And the questions they are asked are questions brains and memory."

He didn't explain why anybody who had luck, brains and memory needed to appear on a giveaway program to make a fortune.

Gillespie reflected to himself, "Just where do the duties of the captain of a luxury passenger liner end?" but at any rate he assumed a parental poise and gave the inquiring youngster a first-rate summary about the bees and the flowers. INTERPRETING MARKET

FINANCIAL experts are still speculating as to what caused the New York stock market to take a steep nosedive when President Eisenhower's illness was announced, recover partially and then fall back again.

In a period of unprecedented prosperity the stock market would not normally decline. Stock prices have, to be sure, already reflected most of the increased corporation earnings. But all except a minority of forecasters predict that prosperity at somewhere near the present level will continue into the indefinite future.

Why, then, should the quoted value of corporation shares take a nosedive? There are some who whisper darkly that potent speculators can manipulate the market, shake out the small fry, pick up their dumped holdings and later take a profit.

But against that theory must be a psychological fear among speculators that a downward plunge might become uncontrollable, with disaster to themselves.

The best explanation of the slight decline in market quotations seems to be that the rise had been too rapid, and a period of readjustment was due.

DISTURBING DISCOVERY

MAJOR SCIENTIFIC discoveries formerly evoked laudatory comments about "the steady advance of progress" and so forth. But the slight chill that ran up the spine at the news of the discovery of a new atomic particle by University of California scientists is proof that mankind is less confident today.

Prof. Ernest O. Lawrence, famed nuclear scientist who headed the radiation research team, said the new atomic particle can annihilate the basic building block of all matter. He predicted the find will open the way for "an exciting new round of atomic discoveries."

To a world that has learned that momentous discoveries in nuclear physics brought the A-bomb and the H-bomb the latest news has some uncomfortable aspects.

The Atomic Energy Commission hastened to say there was no immediate practical application to the discovery. But that's what most experts said about theories which years later led to the A-bomb.

THE THANKSGIVING BIRD

TURKEYS WILL be slightly less plentiful and probably cost a nickel a pound more than last year, according to advance news of the Thanksgiving bird situation. The reason is that the total turkey crop will number perhaps 3 million less than last year.

Turkey prices thus will fit into the overall price picture, contrary to the trend of other farm products. Automobiles cost more, newsprint costs more, shoes will cost more—according to predictions—and now turkeys.

No doubt the government's price index will continue to show that prices are stable, that there has been no change in three years, etc. Perhaps this result will be achieved by substituting hog prices for those of turkeys.

These Days

As recently as April 11, 1955, I find that Tass broadcasted in English from Moscow an article from Pravda written by V. Medvedev entitled "Colonialism Under the Guise of Defense."

This article indicates clearly that Soviet Russia had already fixed upon a policy of getting even with the United States and the NATO powers for the Turko-Iraqi Pact, which finally appeared in the form of arming those Moslem powers in the Middle East that were not associated with the West or that had grown antagonistic, as Egypt has, to Western influences. In this article appear these two paragraphs:

"In this case, the imperialists of the United States and Britain are acting jointly against the national interests of the Arab peoples. They want to disunite and weaken the Arab peoples in order to break their staunchness and solidarity, involve them in the gambling plans of another war, and use them as cannon fodder.

"Thus, the present tactics of the colonial powers unwittingly expose the entire falsehood and hypocrisy of the talks about 'defense,' for which purposes the regional Turko-Iraqi Military Pact was allegedly organized. In reality, it is a matter of setting up another aggressive bloc in the Near and Middle East as an organic continuation of the North Atlantic alliance."

Further, Medvedev says:

"The intrigues of the American and British imperialists in the Near East arouse indignation and protests of the Arab peoples. It is perfectly obvious that the attempts of the American-British imperialists to inveigle the countries of the Arab East into the aggressive blocs rally still more the people of these countries to fight against the colonialists who entertain the hope of spreading enmity between different Arab countries with the help of arms, and to implant their colonialism once again."

Colonel Nasser of Egypt visited India during April, the period of the Bandung and Delhi Conferences to which Israel was the only important Asiatic nation not to be invited. It was undoubtedly at these conferences between Nasser and Nehru that the Egyptian arms deal was arranged. On April 15, Nasser addressed both houses of the Indian Parliament, in the course of which he said:

"Egypt would collaborate with India and other nations to maintain peace, to struggle by all their means for independence, justice, and prosperity of their nations, and for the principles which were dear to humanity and the sacred heritage of civilization. It was time for India and Egypt to continue what they had begun once as the great builders of civilization. The torch had never fallen from the hands of their ancestors, and it was their duty now to make that torch illuminate more."

It was at Bandung that Nehru was so ultra-pro-Soviet that he was repudiated by other Asiatic nations, but Nasser sought and achieved an alliance with Nehru, despite Nehru's pro-Soviet orientation. Nehru has since then almost been a spokesman for Russia in the outer-world through Krishna Menon. The "Hindustan Standard" is quoted by the official "Information Service of India," in a broadcast, as saying:

CHAPTER TWENTY-TWO

DOC STOPPED beaming when Lois remarked that a heart specialist had given Roger a clean bill of health; he watched her steadily. He knows Roger's heart was sound but he won't tell me the truth, she thought. He can't afford to; he's the infallible old Doc. He'll never admit he made a mistake. And it's more than a mistake. If I could smell gas ten days after Roger died—

"The best specialists can be wrong," he said. "There have been a lot of cases. They tell a man he's all right and he walks out of the consulting room and falls dead on the street." He added casually, "I didn't know Roger had seen Jane since the divorce."

"They ran across each other by accident in New York. Mrs. Brindle thought," Lois added, "he looked depressed."

Doc rubbed his hand over his chin. "Too bad," he said sadly, "for her to come back and stir things up, Dog-in-the-manger stuff, as though Roger couldn't be happy with anyone but her. He was the least depressed man I ever knew." He looked ostentatiously at his watch. "Well, Mrs. Fleming, I'm mighty glad you dropped in. I'll try to think up some stories about Roger for those articles." He scraped back his chair. "He wrote about me to the point," he said heartily, "where so many people knew me by name that it might make the stories better to say I told 'em."

"Oh, of course," Lois agreed. With this approach she was completely at home.

He took her hand in his and patted it. The beam was working once more. "Don't let anyone give you any—funny ideas about Roger. We want those articles to be the kind he'd be proud of, don't we? Sure?" He patted her hand again and Lois wondered wildly if he would offer her a lollypop. "And the kind Carol can sign with a clear conscience. Sure we do. There's always a lot of gossip about a man as famous as Roger. But you know that yourself. You've come across the troublemakers before. You'll hear things about why he kept the Hatterys around. But don't you pay any attention. Ethel was a fine secretary and he was mighty nice to her husband, considering what Joe is. You want to be cautious about listening to anything Joe has to say. Criminal, you know." He shook his head. "But that was Roger. Too kind for his own good."

He led her to the outer door. "Helen and I want you to come to supper some night. She'll call you. 'Bye now."

Well, Lois thought as she walked away from the house, conscious that Doc, in full view of the green, was beaming after her retreating figure, well, that's that. The man is lying his head off. Roger Brindle was killed and I can't pretend it isn't so. But what should I do? If I go to the police they'll laugh at me. Dr. Thomas is well known; they'll take his word. It would be easy to accept that, to tell myself I can't do anything on my own and anyhow it doesn't concern me. Only, she admitted, you can't live like that. This was going to be unpleasant but she had to go ahead.

What now? She saw a clock on the town hall. Two-thirty. Across the street was a chain grocery store with a succession of vehicles turning in to its spacious parking lot at the back: shining station wagons, Cadillacs, a Model T Ford. A few farmers walked down the street and women in housedresses, women in slacks, women in blue jeans, women in shorts. The fewer clothes, the surer one was that they were New Yorkers. The natives kept their clothes on. There was a gift shop, which also had a lending library and sold bus tickets; a post office, an ivy-colored red-brick house that had been turned into a library. Lois turned abruptly and went up the steps.

The library was cooler than the street and quiet, the silence broken only by the gasping whir of an electric fan that needed oil. On either side of the entrance were rooms lined with books so badly lighted that it was difficult to decipher the titles. At a center table in the room to the left sat an elderly woman.

Lois went up to the table and the woman looked up at her.

"I am Lois Fleming. Mr. Kibbee was telling me about you this morning. He said you'd been his teacher when he was a boy."

The librarian smiled. "His and Roger Brindle's. They were in the same class. Remember it as if it were yesterday. Better than if it were yesterday. Albert always was a little runt and he was pint-sized then; and Roger just towered over the class. But Albert was the brains, he was the smart one. In a way, that is. He'd have been smarter, of course, to see Roger wasn't real."

Lois snapped to attention. This woman had seen the intangible quality which Jane Brindle had mentioned. The librarian observed Lois' expression and her own was shrewd.

"David and Goliath," she said unexpectedly. "You're no fool. Nice type. You can get people talking but you're not taken in. That's the thing. Not to be taken in. You've got to watch that when people start telling you about Roger. He had this town hypnotized; of course, he was the only celebrity who'd settled here since 1803 so people made a lot of him.

"There are some who'll tell you what a good friend Roger was, just so you'll know they knew him. People who like to touch the fringes of a famous person as though some of the fame would rub off on them. But the ones to look out for, if you want the truth, are those who really believed in him. Take Albert Kibbee, for instance." She shook her head. "Roger wasn't a man to Albert, he was a cult. Bessie Kibbee had no reason to love Roger, even if he did support them. Always in second place. Not like Carol, who has to be first, regardless. And as for Clyde—of all the neglected children! If he resented Roger I'm the one who would never blame him, especially as I hear that he's fallen for Carol's little niece and—"

She stopped to tell a schoolboy where he would find books on aeronautics and turned back to Lois as though there had been no interruption. "But then I sized Roger up a long time ago. I can remember as if it were yesterday when his mother died; got thrown off a horse when she was riding with another man. Her husband, who was a poor stick anyhow, shot himself. So the boy was left an orphan with some strait-laced relatives. What was their name now? I had it right on the tip of my tongue."

Money Give-Away Exciting

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Giving away money can be almost as exciting as winning it.

Jack Barry says he gets all stirred up inside when he dishes out the big dough, even though it comes out of a sponsor's pocket and not his own.

Barry, master of ceremonies on the new $100,000 give-away show, "The Big Surprise," on occasion has found that a question can become as big an ordeal to him as it is to the contestant.

"The tension builds up in you," he remarked, "because you sometimes get as deeply involved emotionally with the contestants in the 20 minutes you deal with them as you would if you had known them for 20 years.

"When they win, a wave of excitement hits you, too; a feeling which lasts until you suddenly realize it is really somebody else who won the money and not you."

However, Barry can console himself with the thought that after all he doesn't have to borrow money to meet his grocery bill. TV emcees aren't paid off in peanuts.

And right now, Barry is riding high financially as the new king of the giveaway, a position he seems likely to hold until someone dreams up a program on which the sponsor will reward the winning contestant with the key to Fort Knox.

In addition to acting as little shepherd of the $100,000 prize, Jack also serves as producer and emcee for three other programs — "Life Begins at 80," "Juvenile Jury," and "Winky-Dink and You." Whether you're just learning to talk or are living on borrowed time, Jack has a question to ask you on a program tailored to your age level.

Barry is typical of the new type of television emcee, who is brightly eager to shower you with cash if you can show your head holds even the smallest nugget of knowledge.

The old style emcee often had a different aim—to see that only a certain amount of the sponsor's money was given away. Sometimes they had it neatly figured out how often they wanted the jackpot won. And if a particularly bright contestant threatened to upset their financial schedule they had a number of sure-fire ways to see he didn't hit the jackpot.

One was the filibuster technique. The emcee would confuse a contestant by rapid-fire chatter until the gong rang ending his time to answer the question.

There was also the "soft-death" approach. The emcee would keep cooing, "Remember you have just 30 seconds. You now have just 15 seconds. Ooooh, there's the gong. Sorry, your time is up."

And, of course, the emcee always had one final ace up his sleeve—the impossible question, one that would stump even a Greek oracle.

Barry says the attitude on the new huge giveaway program is just the opposite.

"They've found out the money is less important than the good will of the audience," he said. "The more money we give away, the happier people will be, the more they'll watch the show and the more they'll buy the sponsor's product."

Barry also pointed out that the method of picking contestants also has changed.

"Instead of grabbing anybody who wanders into the studio with an out-of-town accent," he said, "an effort is made to find people who are both deserving and interesting. And the questions they are asked are questions brains and memory."

He didn't explain why anybody who had luck, brains and memory needed to appear on a giveaway program to make a fortune.

DIET AND HEALTH

Diet With Aid Of Sugar

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

DOES sugar have a place in a reducing diet? You bet it does!

Sugar, you see, actually helps you get rid of fat.

When you reduce, you literally are burning fat. Without a sugar intake, the fat will be only partially consumed and the poisonous waste products will flood your system, distorting the body's functions and causing acidosis.

To Build Tissue

You not only want to burn fat, but you also want to build up normal tissue. This requires the help of protein.

We know that more protein is available for tissue building by your body if your diet also includes carbohydrates.

Consequently, although you may consume large quantities of protein, a good portion of it will not be used for tissue building unless you take a little sugar, too.

Included In Diet

A reducing diet, therefore, must include a little sugar as well as increased milk and meat allowances, to enable those valuable proteins you eat to be used for constructive purposes. Jelly for your bread or toast is an excellent way of getting this needed sugar.

Household Hints

Cook coarsely grated carrots in consomme; season further with butter. Use just enough consomme so there will be only a tablespoon or so of the liquid left by the time the carrots are tender.

Light cream, called for in some recipes, means cream that contains 18 to 30 per cent butterfat.

Using seafood for a salad? Marinate it first in a well-seasoned French dressing. At serving time, drain off any of the dressing in the bowl and mix the seafood with diced celery, green pepper and mayonnaise. Surround the seafood with salad greens and garnish with paprika and capers. Or use sliced hard-cooked egg and gherkins for the garnish.

Next time you are simmering a boneless pork shoulder butt in water, try adding whole cloves, peppercorns and bay leaves to the water.

Ever serve sliced bananas and diced oranges with a soft custard? Flavor the custard with just a suspicion of nutmeg or mace.

Jr. Woman's Club Donates Funds For Freedom Village

Community Fund Donation Approved

The Circleville Junior Woman's Club voted Thursday night to lend financial support to a Korean Freedom Village program and to contribute to the Community Fund.

Club members also delegated Mrs. Louis M. Wuest to purchase sufficient material, pattern, and trimmings for a dress to be sent to a German girl as part of the General Clay German Youth program.

Funds donated by the local Woman's Club for the Freedom Village will be combined with contributions of other Women's Clubs in the southeast district of Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs.

The money will be used for the village which will house 30 families of 189 persons. These people, 30 percent of whom are children under 13, are refugees of the village of Yong Paik Gun in North Korea.

These refugees will do the actual construction and make the bricks. Funds supplied by the clubs will buy simple tools to be used in adapting the land for cultivation, for clothing, school supplies and seed.

Household Hints

Cook coarsely grated carrots in consomme; season further with butter. Use just enough consomme so there will be only a tablespoon or so of the liquid left by the time the carrots are tender.

Light cream, called for in some recipes, means cream that contains 18 to 30 per cent butterfat.

Using seafood for a salad? Marinate it first in a well-seasoned French dressing. At serving time, drain off any of the dressing in the bowl and mix the seafood with diced celery, green pepper and mayonnaise. Surround the seafood with salad greens and garnish with paprika and capers. Or use sliced hard-cooked egg and gherkins for the garnish.

Next time you are simmering a boneless pork shoulder butt in water, try adding whole cloves, peppercorns and bay leaves to the water.

Ever serve sliced bananas and diced oranges with a soft custard? Flavor the custard with just a suspicion of nutmeg or mace.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a divorcee with a son whom I am helping through school. I work very hard, sometimes holding two jobs, and there have been times when my parents had to help me. However I have always tried to repay them for any help given me.

Over a period of several years I have been able to acquire quite a nice wardrobe. And now, because I have three Spring coats, my mother thinks I should give her one, as hers has faded. But I feel that she should buy herself a new coat, as my father makes between $50 and $75 a day.

Do you think I am being stingy? My father is very tight with money, but I think mother should insist on her due. Anyway, my clothes aren't very becoming to her, as I am tall and she is short.

J. G.

DEAR J. G.: Your mother's insistent emotional pressure, in candidly coveting one of your coats is indicative of a childish dependent, self-centered bias. She fails to take fair-minded account of your special needs, in your particular type of hardship case—and rather envies you one aspect of your endeavor to build up security.

The disinterested observer, objectively evaluating your circumstances, versus hers, recognizes that a cumulative wardrobe is a protective investment of sorts with you. Maybe you haven't consciously figured it out, but it represents both working capital and employment insurance in your scheme of things.

When a woman with housekeeper obligations is "on her own" in life, her appearance is apt to be either an economic liability or an economic asset. Thus a backlog of nice clothes, in sufficient variety to be kept in good condition and refreshingly rotated is a business help, if wisely used; and by no means an extravagance, if one can afford the initial outlay.

Conflict Seen

A habit of being well dressed, a tonic to the eye, is an aid to morale, hence good for the health also. It tends to increase job efficiency and to promote good relations with co-workers, and to foster job advancement—owing to the salutary effects upon self-esteem. Aloo it tends to make one more valued on the job, and it steps up one's chances of readily finding other employment if mayhap a job is lost through no fault of one's own.

Well, that's my slant on the background implications of your three Spring coats, and your mother's yen to have one of them. If you are being stingy, it is in a sprit of thrift or prudence—not arrant selfishness, I think. Whereas your mother hasn't much logical justification for wanting to splinter your backlog—when she has a financially sharp helpmate to take care of her.

M. H.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a girl in my early twenties. My mother is dead and just my father and I are at home. I have an office job, eight hours a day, after which I prepare supper, do the housework and laundry and all the other chores. Do you think I should pay board in these circumstances? My dad has a good job and other income.

D. D.

DEAR D. D.: It seems to me that you are fully earning your board-and-keep at home, by doing the housework cooking and laundry and other chores. Thus if you are required to pay for living there, surely you should also be paid a domestic's wage for domestic service. If one is fair, so is the other, in my opinion. I think your dad is wrong if he feels you owe him rent in the circumstances.

M. H.

Mary Haworth counsels through her column, not by mail or personal interview. Write her in care of this newspaper.

Local DAR Reminds Voters They Have Power At Polls

Pickaway Plains Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was on record today with a dual appeal to residents of the district—to cast their vote in next Tuesday's elections and to honor "Old Glory" on Veterans Day, next Friday.

The same patriotic spirit, a spokesman for the chapter said, binds both duties. A statement issued for the chapter went on:

"We sincerely hope that every American citizen will exercise his or her prerogative and go to the polls next Tuesday and vote. Know the candidates, and vote for patriotic Americans!

'Many people have asked: 'What can I do to save our country?' Our Constitution put power in the hands of the people, and if we exercise this power, we can have the kind of government we want."

* * *

VOTERS AT this time, the chapter spokesman pointed out, might well draw inspiration from the story of William Tyler Page, author of the American's Creed.

Page was only 10 years old when family circumstances forced him to go to work as a "printer's devil" in his hometown, Frederick, Md. After this work during the daytime hours, he worked nights in a factory.

Surmounting difficulties far beyond those expected of modern day boys, he was finally appointed as page boy in the nation's capital.

Years later, he spent $20,000 of his own money to distribute copies of The American's Creed, to the public and also among school children.

A tablet in memory of Page was recently unveiled in Washington by the national society of the DAR. The Pickaway County branch of the organization contributed to the memorial.

Dayton Slayer, 20, To Be Sentenced

DAYTON (AP) — William Camp, convicted 20-year-old Dayton slayer, will be sentenced Monday in common pleas court here.

A jury last night debated five hours before finding Camp guilty of first degree murder in the abortive holdup of a Dayton grocery store last Jan. 29. Proprietor Fred Laghner, 69, was killed.

Building Planned

XENIA (AP) — President Charles H. Wesley of Central State College has announced plans for a $4,300,000 building program over the next five years.

TV Seen Boosting Use Of Libraries

CINCINNATI (AP) — Good television shows are "driving people to books," Robert D. Franklin of Toledo says. He is president of the Tri-State Library Conference, which is holding its annual meeting here.

Asked if TV is interfering with reading habits, Franklin said:

"No. Television is even driving people to books. The good shows; not the bad ones, are doing this. A fine play, dramatized for TV, is an incentive for people to read the original. Good science and nature programs, too, stir curiosity, and people want to know more.'

Sokolsky's

" 'Asia was a backyard of European politics and Africa a colonial underworld of Europe,' and the West's 'current policies have to a large measure produced new stresses and strains in Asia and Africa.' "

The current Egyptian-Israeli situation is not a direct development of the Bandung Conference, but the arming of Egypt by Soviet Russia is undoubtedly a policy decision reached in reprisal against the Turko-Iraqi Treaty, which has been extended to Iran and Pakistan and which strengthens the NATO program of bases in Asia. It is a Russian design to form an anti-American bloc among the Arab nations which are not tied into the program of defensive bases against Soviet Russia. It is part of the world-wide attack on NATO and NATO is important as the mechanism for the external defense of the United States.

Obviously, we cannot blame the Russians for taking measures against the United States with which it is engaged in a war to upset a balance of power. But we ought to recognize that that war, often referred to as "The Cold War," continues and that there could have been no realistic meaning to the Conference of Smiles at Geneva if Russia continues to engage in the "Cold War," as apparently Russia insists upon doing.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a divorcee with a son whom I am helping through school. I work very hard, sometimes holding two jobs, and there have been times when my parents had to help me. However I have always tried to repay them for any help given me.

Over a period of several years I have been able to acquire quite a nice wardrobe. And now, because I have three Spring coats, my mother thinks I should give her one, as hers has faded. But I feel that she should buy herself a new coat, as my father makes between $50 and $75 a day.

Do you think I am being stingy? My father is very tight with money, but I think mother should insist on her due. Anyway, my clothes aren't very becoming to her, as I am tall and she is short.

J. G.

DEAR J. G.: Your mother's insistent emotional pressure, in candidly coveting one of your coats is indicative of a childish dependent, self-centered bias. She fails to take fair-minded account of your special needs, in your particular type of hardship case—and rather envies you one aspect of your endeavor to build up security.

The disinterested observer, objectively evaluating your circumstances, versus hers, recognizes that a cumulative wardrobe is a protective investment of sorts with you. Maybe you haven't consciously figured it out, but it represents both working capital and employment insurance in your scheme of things.

When a woman with housekeeper obligations is "on her own" in life, her appearance is apt to be either an economic liability or an economic asset. Thus a backlog of nice clothes, in sufficient variety to be kept in good condition and refreshingly rotated is a business help, if wisely used; and by no means an extravagance, if one can afford the initial outlay.

Conflict Seen

A habit of being well dressed, a tonic to the eye, is an aid to morale, hence good for the health also. It tends to increase job efficiency and to promote good relations with co-workers, and to foster job advancement—owing to the salutary effects upon self-esteem. Aloo it tends to make one more valued on the job, and it steps up one's chances of readily finding other employment if mayhap a job is lost through no fault of one's own.

Well, that's my slant on the background implications of your three Spring coats, and your mother's yen to have one of them. If you are being stingy, it is in a sprit of thrift or prudence—not arrant selfishness, I think. Whereas your mother hasn't much logical justification for wanting to splinter your backlog—when she has a financially sharp helpmate to take care of her.

M. H.

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am a girl in my early twenties. My mother is dead and just my father and I are at home. I have an office job, eight hours a day, after which I prepare supper, do the housework and laundry and all the other chores. Do you think I should pay board in these circumstances? My dad has a good job and other income.

D. D.

DEAR D. D.: It seems to me that you are fully earning your board-and-keep at home, by doing the housework cooking and laundry and other chores. Thus if you are required to pay for living there, surely you should also be paid a domestic's wage for domestic service. If one is fair, so is the other, in my opinion. I think your dad is wrong if he feels you owe him rent in the circumstances.

M. H.

Local DAR Reminds Voters They Have Power At Polls

Pickaway Plains Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was on record today with a dual appeal to residents of the district—to cast their vote in next Tuesday's elections and to honor "Old Glory" on Veterans Day, next Friday.

The same patriotic spirit, a spokesman for the chapter said, binds both duties. A statement issued for the chapter went on:

"We sincerely hope that every American citizen will exercise his or her prerogative and go to the polls next Tuesday and vote. Know the candidates, and vote for patriotic Americans!

'Many people have asked: 'What can I do to save our country?' Our Constitution put power in the hands of the people, and if we exercise this power, we can have the kind of government we want."

* * *

VOTERS AT this time, the chapter spokesman pointed out, might well draw inspiration from the story of William Tyler Page, author of the American's Creed.

Page was only 10 years old when family circumstances forced him to go to work as a "printer's devil" in his hometown, Frederick, Md. After this work during the daytime hours, he worked nights in a factory.

Surmounting difficulties far beyond those expected of modern day boys, he was finally appointed as page boy in the nation's capital.

Years later, he spent $20,000 of his own money to distribute copies of The American's Creed, to the public and also among school children.

A tablet in memory of Page was recently unveiled in Washington by the national society of the DAR. The Pickaway County branch of the organization contributed to the memorial.

TV Seen Boosting Use Of Libraries

CINCINNATI (AP) — Good television shows are "driving people to books," Robert D. Franklin of Toledo says. He is president of the Tri-State Library Conference, which is holding its annual meeting here.

Asked if TV is interfering with reading habits, Franklin said:

"No. Television is even driving people to books. The good shows; not the bad ones, are doing this. A fine play, dramatized for TV, is an incentive for people to read the original. Good science and nature programs, too, stir curiosity, and people want to know more.'

Sokolsky's

" 'Asia was a backyard of European politics and Africa a colonial underworld of Europe,' and the West's 'current policies have to a large measure produced new stresses and strains in Asia and Africa.' "

The current Egyptian-Israeli situation is not a direct development of the Bandung Conference, but the arming of Egypt by Soviet Russia is undoubtedly a policy decision reached in reprisal against the Turko-Iraqi Treaty, which has been extended to Iran and Pakistan and which strengthens the NATO program of bases in Asia. It is a Russian design to form an anti-American bloc among the Arab nations which are not tied into the program of defensive bases against Soviet Russia. It is part of the world-wide attack on NATO and NATO is important as the mechanism for the external defense of the United States.

Obviously, we cannot blame the Russians for taking measures against the United States with which it is engaged in a war to upset a balance of power. But we ought to recognize that that war, often referred to as "The Cold War," continues and that there could have been no realistic meaning to the Conference of Smiles at Geneva if Russia continues to engage in the "Cold War," as apparently Russia insists upon doing.

Congressman Shows Alarm Over U. S. Newsprint Setup

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Kline (D-NY), chairman of a House interstate commerce subcommittee, declares he is "alarmed" at the threat of a shortage of newsprint and at recent increases in the price of the material.

He referred to Tuesday night's statement by R. M. Fowler, president of the Newsprint Assn. of Canada, that some U. S. publishers may be in "real distress" if North American consumption of newsprint continues at the present rate.

During the past two weeks, six Canadian newsprint manufacturers have announced price increases of some $3 to $5 a ton, with most of the hikes going into effect Tuesday.

Fowler announced that on Nov. 14 the group will begin a tour of Southern newsprint mills to obtain information on the newsprint situation in this country.

"We plan no action at this time," said Kline, "but we will issue a statement about Nov. 21 as to what we find on our trip and what we think the government can do about the recent price increases."

The justice department's anti-trust division has been holding talks with U. S. newsprint producers in an effort to block a general increase. So far, no domestic manufacturer has raised its price.

Rep. Paul F. Schneck (R-Ohio), a member of the subcommittee, declared:

"I have been advised that an increase of $5 a ton in newsprint will add a total of $170,000 a year to the costs of the two daily newspapers in Dayton, in my district."

"These papers will have no choice but to raise their advertising rates and this will hit the small businessman," Schenck said.

The Ohio congressman said both Dayton papers are two to three carloads behind in receiving their deliveries from producers and have unusually low stocks on hand.

Schenck called for increased research on developing new sources of supply for newsprint and added that "this could present a part of the solution to the farm problem."

A forecast that newspapers face a "terrible worldwide newsprint shortage in 1956" came today from Viscount Rothermere, chairman of Associated Newspapers Ltd. of Great Britain, which publishes the London Daily Mail, London Evening News and the Sunday Dispatch.

Before sailing on the liner Queen Mary, the publisher said in New York that the impending shortage would result from "the all-time record consumption."

Viscount Rothermere is a director of Anglo-Newfoundland Development Co., of Grand Falls, Newfoundland, which Tuesday announced an increase of $3 a ton.

He said that, "as a publisher he deplored" the recent price boosts but that "as a newsprint producer, I welcome them; we're not so much concerned with price as how to get hold of it."

Red-Haired Grandma Says To Stay Young, Keep Busy

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

The way to stay young and look your best is to keep busy, says Margaret Rudkin, a glamorous red-haired grandmother whose latest honor is the award of the Medallion of Honor from the Women's International Exposition.

Mrs. Rudkin, who started with a loaf of home-baked bread and built an international business, says:

"My own grandmother had retired to her shawl and her rocking chair at my age, and wore her bonnet and best black silk dress only on Sundays."

Mrs. Rudkin, on the other hand, is given to frivolous Paris hats and spoke heels, keeps up with the latest in art and literature and manages a far-flung business empire with accomplished ease.

Despite her fantastic success, however, she knows every employe at her Pepperidge Farms in Norwalk, Conn., and personally supervises the old-fashioned ingredients and hand processes that go into her bread.

Mrs. Rudkin has a granddaughter Margaret Rudkin, aged 10 months, daughter of her son Henry J. Says grandma:

"She's simply wonderful, has red hair just like me, and I'm going to see to it that she has a career. I'd like to see her go to Harvard Business School."

Mrs. Rudkin feels that the world's happiest women as well as some of the most glamorous get that way from keeping busy, not growing bored, having more than they can do most of the time.

The choice of Mrs. Rudkin as recipient of the current "award to industry" of the Women's International Exposition was made in recognition of:

1. Her outstanding business success in an area of special interest to women (namely, bread).

2. The job opportunities she has provided through the years for women.

3. Her encouragement to women in the field of economics by the establishment of annual scholarships at Connecticut College for Women, at Howard University and to the Lucy Stone League, to be awarded by the league to a worthy student.

4. Her keen interest in art and her financial support of many worthwhile causes of benefit to women.

5. Her policy of giving her employes, both men and women, a sense of personal participation in her own ventures.

HAMILTON (AP) — A 40-year-old mother of two children was killed in her stepfather's home near here last night. Three hours later her estranged husband shot himself to death as police sought to place him under arrest in connection with the slaying of his wife.

Dead are Mrs. Thelma Krugel and her husband, Lother.

Butler County Deputy Sheriff Andy Guenther said he was told by John Fritz, Mrs. Krugel's stepfather, that Krugel entered his home carrying a gun and killed Mrs. Krugel in the sight of the Krugels' two small children and two other persons.

Simple 'Lung' Saves Life Of Crushed Man

CHACAGO (AP) — Surgeons here told of a medical miracle, and the part played by a simple new artificial lung.

It began with the horrible moment when a steel worker was crushed by a locomotive against a stone wall. He was a big man, weighing 235 pounds.

Yet he was crushed by the monstrous machine into a space only eight inches wide. He had 35 fractures of 20 ribs, breast bone, clavicles and pelvic bones broken, internal organs injured.

Dr. E. T. Morch is inventor of the lung.

The man recovered and is back at work. The lung is helping polio victims, people with injured chests, patients in breathing troubles after surgery or for other causes.

The lung did the breathing for a month day and night for the crushed man. It blew air gently into his lungs, then let it escape. The man's own breathing muscles stopped working, but his motionless ribs knit.

The new lung is a transparent plastic box, two feet wide, three feet long, a foot high.

A motor-driven piston pumps air through a tube and valve in pulses, like normal breathing.

Arraignment Set In Stabbing Case

DAYTON (AP) — Mrs. Ruth Ann McDaniel, 53, is scheduled to be arraigned today in Dayton Municipal Court on first degree manslaughter charges arising from the fatal stabbing of Roy Boian, 54.

Police said she admitted the Tuesday night stabbing of Boian in her Dayton apartment. They added the two had been living together and that Mrs. McDaniel complained of mistreatment.

PUCO Examiner OKs Girl's Plea On Rail Crossing

COLUMBUS (AP)—A Public Utilities Commission of Ohio attorney-examiner has agreed with a little girl's plea to President Eisenhower that a railroad crossing where her father was killed last Dec. 12 should be protected better.

The examiner, Lewis Witherspoon, recommended in a report to the commission the New York Central Railroad install flasher lights and gates at its crossing at Sellars Rd. in Moraine.

A letter from 9-year-old Pamela Sue Huff of Belfast, Highland County to the President telling how her father, James W. Huff, was killed at the crossing brought about the commission hearing Sept. 15.

The railroad in general denied the crossing was dangerous.

But Witherspoon, after considering testimony, decided the crossing was unsafe because of the speed of the trains over it, the number of vehicles that cross the tracks and inability of motorists to see approaching trains.

Pennsy Rail Dispute Set For Mediation

CLEVELAND (AP)—A dispute between the Pennsylvania Railroad and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen is going into mediation, probably within the next 10 days.

Yesterday the brotherhood served a strike notice for 6 a. m. Sunday against the railroad, but withdrew it at the request of the National (Railway) Mediation Board.

Henry E. Gilbert, president of the rail union, said the 120,000-member brotherhood would hold off its strike pending appointment of a mediator. A strike would have affected 8,000 Pennsylvania Railroad employes in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland.

The dispute is over 585 personnel cases the union says the company failed to try to settle in accordance with provisions of the Railroad Act. The company declared the union's accusation was without foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. Auto Buyer
Pickaway County, Ohio:

We have just completed the biggest year of sales in our 44 years of business. In the 1955 Model year, one out of every ten automobiles sold in Pickaway County was an Oldsmobile. To our many customers, we wish to take this means to express our sincere thanks for helping us to accomplish such a record.

We feel that this could not have been possible without first a superior product to sell and second a sales and service organization second to none.

Now we are starting our 1956 Model year; and after seeing and driving the new Oldsmobiles we have set our sights even higher. Realizing the magnitude of the task we have set before us, we feel it is necessary to state publicly our policies and practices which will carry us ahead even in the highly competitive automobile market of today.

First, as always, we pledge to you, the buying public, to maintain a trained service organization to serve you.

Second, to operate our business on sound and tried business principles and not to engage in any of the "Blitz" selling schemes cropping up in the automobile business today.

Third, to sell our products not at the lowest price but to endeavor to give a dollar's worth for a dollar spent.

We feel that by adhering to these three basic principles, our success and your satisfaction will be guaranteed. May we serve you in the year ahead?

Henry E. Gilbert, president of the rail union, said the 120,000-member brotherhood would hold off its strike pending appointment of a mediator. A strike would have affected 8,000 Pennsylvania Railroad employes in Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Kentucky, West Virginia, Virginia and Maryland.

The dispute is over 585 personnel cases the union says the company failed to try to settle in accordance with provisions of the Railroad Act. The company declared the union's accusation was without foundation.

Judge Sentences Ex-Law Partner

NEW PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A local judge performed what he called "the most unpleasant duty I have had since becoming a judge" when he sentenced his former law partner to jail for 10 days for driving while intoxicated.

The lawyer, Arthur L. Limbach, also was fined $100 and costs and his driving license was suspended for six months by Judge Cletus A. Fisher. The charge against him was brought by the state patrol.

Deportation OKd

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Board of Immigration Appeals has upheld a deportation order against William G. (Big Bull) Lias, operator of Wheeling Downs race track in West Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Auto Buyer
Pickaway County, Ohio:

We have just completed the biggest year of sales in our 44 years of business. In the 1955 Model year, one out of every ten automobiles sold in Pickaway County was an Oldsmobile. To our many customers, we wish to take this means to express our sincere thanks for helping us to accomplish such a record.

We feel that this could not have been possible without first a superior product to sell and second a sales and service organization second to none.

Now we are starting our 1956 Model year; and after seeing and driving the new Oldsmobiles we have set our sights even higher. Realizing the magnitude of the task we have set before us, we feel it is necessary to state publicly our policies and practices which will carry us ahead even in the highly competitive automobile market of today.

First, as always, we pledge to you, the buying public, to maintain a trained service organization to serve you.

Second, to operate our business on sound and tried business principles and not to engage in any of the "Blitz" selling schemes cropping up in the automobile business today.

Third, to sell our products not at the lowest price but to endeavor to give a dollar's worth for a dollar spent.

We feel that by adhering to these three basic principles, our success and your satisfaction will be guaranteed. May we serve you in the year ahead?

Sincerely,
CLIFTON MOTOR SALES, INC.

Vice-President

Here Are Final Arguments Pro, Con On Idle Pay Hike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Following are the final statements of the proponents and opponents of the proposed new unemployment compensation law to be voted upon in the Nov. 8 election.

Statement of the Committee to Protect Standards of Living, for the proposal, (Elizabeth S. Magee, chairman):

"Ohioans, by voting 'yes' will follow President Eisenhower's recommendation for a more adequate law.

"President Eisenhower, in his economic report to Congress last January, said:

" 'The general level of benefits is now too low . . . it is highly desirable that the states change their laws so that the great majority of covered workers will be eligible for payments that at least equal half their regular earnings.'

"The proposed law is not a tax law. It will not mean new or added taxes. The Ohio unemployment fund is employer-financed. Employers—not employes — pay into the fund.

"The Ohio law is tough. No one gets paid for not working. The Ohio law specifically states that an applicant, in order to receive benefits: 'Is able to work and available for suitable work and is actively seeking such work.'

"Unemployment compensation is designed to do two things:

"Help tide over the unemployed workers and his family while new work is sought.

"Bolster the economy by maintaining purchasing power during periods of joblessness.

"This is not a political question. It is a question of decency and justice. The average weekly payment last year was only $29. I urge you to vote 'yes' and give Ohio a humane law!"

Statement of the Ohio Information Committee (Fred J. Milligan, executive secretary):

"The CIO bosses versus the people of Ohio.

"That is the real meaning of the CIO's proposed law to increase unemployment benefits in Ohio.

"Despite the emotional smokescreen set up by the CIO propagandists, this proposal is a self-interest piece of legislation designed specifically to legalize the so-called GAW contracts of Walter Reuther and provide double benefits to CIO members covered by such contracts. There is ample evidence that the CIO campaign is being directed from Detroit.

"The CIO has three objectives: Legalization of the GAW contracts, special priviledges for CIO members and increased political control of Ohio.

"Obviously, the sky-high benefits of $59 a week for 39 weeks, tax-free, are both economically inadvisable and a complete distortion of the purpose of unemployment compensation which is to provide temporary assistance.

"Such excessive increases in benefits would mean another hidden tax and higher prices on consumer products. The higher benefits would merely invite abuse from drifters, loafers and job jumpers.

"Gov. Lausche calls it 'fantastic.' Sen. Bricker calls it 'exorbitant.'

"Ohio now pays the highest benefits of any industrial state with the exception of CIO-controlled Michigan. . . The rate of benefit increase has far exceeded the cost of living increase.

"This self-interest CIO bill is morally and economically wrong.

"We are convinced the voters of Ohio will say 'no' to the CIO on Issue 4 Nov. 8."

Present maximum unemployment benefit is $33 a week plus a $3-a-week dependency allowance for each child with a $6-a-week limit. That means the most any family with a single wage-earner can receive is $39 a week. The limit for receiving the benefits is 26 weeks.

The CIO proposal, brought to the ballot by the seldom-used initiative petition method, would increase the top weekly benefit to an individual to $50 a week. It also would continue the $3-per-child dependency allowance, but raise the limit to $9 a week. Under the proposal, the most any family with a single wage-earner could receive would be $59 a week.

Figures used for the CIO proposal are maximum figures only. They would apply only to jobless workers whose weekly pay averaged $88.15 or higher. Benefits for workers earning less would be lower.

The maximum benefit period also would be increased from 26 to 39 weeks.

New Craftsmen Said Major Need

COLUMBUS (AP)—A Washington executive says the country needs 250,000 new craftsmen annually, yet less than 38,000 enter apprenticeships each year.

Douglas Whitlock, board chairman of the Structural Clay Products Institute, made the remark at the Ohio Apprenticeship Conference closing sesion yesterday.

He said he doesn't believe there will be enough trained workers to handle increased demand for products resulting from the St. Lawrence Seaway and Ohio Turnpike.

Tigers To Play Final Away Tilt With Delaware

Circleville's Tigers will take a chilly journey north tonight as they travel to Delaware for an independent game.

CHS will be gunning for its sixth straight win in their eighth start. However, several of these victories have been "tight" ones in which the Tigers were supposed to have won with ease.

The cold weather—temperatures are supposed to be in the low 30's tonight—could easily bring on the Tigers' worst disease "fumble-itis". This has been CHS's worst enemy all season and has cost them numerous scoring opportunities.

Delaware Willis has not had an impressive record this year in the tough Central Buckeye League. However, to count out a team of its potential is asking for trouble and CHS knows it.

* * *

TIGER COACHES said that the boys here have been in 'good' spirits all week. Head coach Steve Brudzinski has been trying to brush up the team on timing and defense. They have also been working out a few new formations while polishing up on the old ones.

About the only major change in the Circleville lineup will be Gary Phifer at left halfback. Although the Tigers were bruised up in their battle with Greenfield here last week, they are expected to be in good shape.

CHS coaches have been trying to guard against the danger of their boys looking forward to next week's game here with their traditional rival Washington C. H. They warn that if the boys "forget" about tonight's contest they could easily come out on the short end of the final score.

Old Big Ten Rivalries Eyed As Bringing Possible Upsets

CHICAGO (AP)—Favorites will be especially wary of upsets Saturday as the Big Ten football race enters November's home stretch.

Michigan's unbeaten Wolverines are listed a two-touchdown favorite at Illinois. But the rivalry has been rife with upsets in the past, starting with Illinois' 39-14 ambush in 1924 behind Red Grange.

Another great Ilini victory came in 1939 when Michigan and Tommy Harmon were licked 16-7. Illinois' 13-9 triumph in 1946 gave it the conference title over Michigan and the first Rose Bowl trip.

The Wolverines are in their best physical shape of the campaign for their test Saturday. Illinois has injury problems, one of the main ones being quarterback Em Lindbeck's bad knee.

Other rivalries send Indiana to Ohio State, Minnesota to Iowa, Michigan State to Purdue and Wisconsin to Northwestern.

Notre Dame, beaten only by Michigan State, is at winless Penn and Detroit at Marquette to round out the card for Midwestern teams.

Indiana has won three straight, its longest streak since 1946. That's enough to buoy up the Hoosiers although their three victims were not a too impressive lot—Northwestern, Villanova and Ohio University.

Ohio State has lost to Duke and Stanford but is undefeated in Big Ten action, having disposed of Illinois, Wisconsin and Northwestern.

Michigan State defeated Notre Dame 21-7. Purdue was walloped by the Irish 22-7. But the Boilermakers' defense smothered Illinois last week and their attack, woven around passer Len Dawson, fullback Bill Murakowski and halfback Jim Whitmer, was impressive.

Last week, the Spartans blanked Wisconsin 27-0.

Minnesota has failed to beat Iowa on the Hawkeyes home field since 1948. The Gophers' young squad gained considerable confidence last week by stunning Southern California 25-19 while Iowa lost a heartbreaker to the Wolverines, whose last period rally produced a 33-21 decision. The game will be televised regionally.

Wisconsin tries to snap a three-game losing string against winless Northwestern. The Wildcats' hackles are up after a campus newspaper suggested the school should withdraw from the Big Ten.

The odds - makers have made Iowa a favorite by 7 points, Michigan State by 13, and Ohio State and Wisconsin by 14.

Jet Hydroplane Slated For Tests

LAS VEGAS (AP)—Donald Campbell, Britain's speedboat record holder, today plans a test run on Lake Mead in his jet hydroplane.

The Bluebird, which sank after an unsuccessful record attempt Oct. 16, has been overhauled at nearby Nellis Air Force Base. Campbell is seeking to break his own world record of 202.32 mph.

Defending Pro Cage Champs Labeled Dull

NEW YORK (AP)—The Syracuse Nationals, defending champions, aren't "jelling together" in the opinion of their coach, Al Cervi, on the eve of Saturday's opening games in the National Basketball Assn.

The Nats entertain Fort Wayne, last year's western division winners, in one of the four games that open the season. The other games find Philadelphia at Boston, Minneapolis at St. Louis and New York at Rochester.

"I know it's early," Cervi said. "But Dolph Schayes, Red Rochia and Earl Lloyd aren't as advanced as they should be with the start of the season a day away."

The St. Louis Bombers, members of the NBA during the first three years of the professional loop's operations, have taken over the franchise of the Milwaukee Hawks.

Since last year there has been a makeup. Bob Wanzer has taken over as coach of the Rochester Royals, succeeding the veteran Lester Harrison, who has decided to concentrate on his owner's responsibilities.

A 15-game series of telecasts will start Dec. 10.

All Counties Set To Sell Deer Permits

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio hunters will be able to get 1955 deer permits after Nov. 10 from outlets in all 88 counties, says the state division of wildlife.

Wildlife officials say the permits will be issued by county clerks, sporting good stores, hardware stores and some township and village clerks, as well as wildlife district offices at Columbus, Sandusky, Findlay, Akron, Athens, Chillicothe and Xenia.

Permit holders must also have a valid Ohio hunting license.

Bow-and-arrow hunters will have from Nov. 24-Dec. 1 to get the one deer per person allowed. Shotgun hunters may seek deer Dec. 1-3.

Regulations allow hunting with bow only in Maumee State Forest. Deer hunting with gun or long bow is allowed in these counties: Monroe, Belmont, Harrison, Jefferson, Carroll, Columbiana, Mahoning, Trumbull, Ashtabula, Lake, Geauga, Portage, Summit, Stark, Tuscarawas, Guernsey, Noble, Washington, Meigs, Athens, Morgan, Muskingum, Coshocton, Holmes, Wayne, Lorain, Huron, Ashland, Knox, Licking, Fairfield, Perry, Hocking, Vinton, Jackson, Gallia, Lawrence, Scioto, Pike, Ross and Adams.

Powder Bowl Scheduled At Athens Sunday

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—A bevy of beautiful football players will tangle in an all touch and no tackle game here Sunday—Ohio University's ninth annual Powder Bowl classic.

The contest pits the Alpha Xi Delta sorority against the beauties of Pi Beta Phi, a coed event that leaves the men in the cheering section.

Instead of a queen being crowned, the two squads will select a Powder Bowl king from fraternity candidates.

Quarterback Kay Sears of Wyoming, Ohio, a three-year player, will lead the Pi Phi attack against such veterans as Capt. Ro Ferro of Euclid, a four-year veteran of the games.

Five tilts have ended in ties. The Pi Phis have won two and the Alpha Xis one.

Quarters will be only eight minutes long and the playing field has been shortened to 80 yards, a policy proposed after three early games ended in scoreless ties. Proceeds go to the Damon Runyon Cancer Fund.

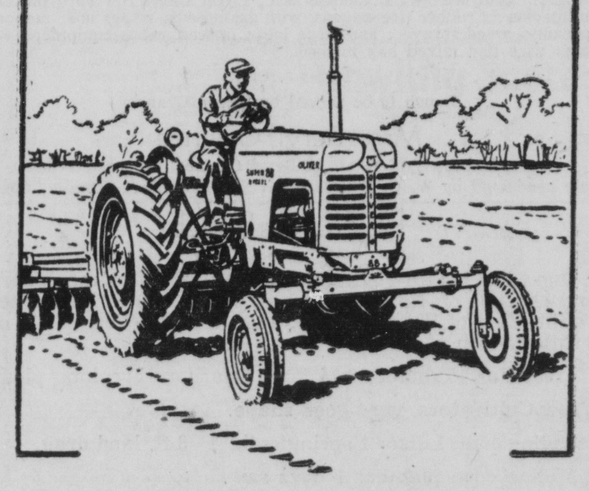

Johnson Favored To Defeat Boyd

CHICAGO (AP)—George Johnson, Trenton, N. J., middleweight, rules a 7-5 favorite over Chicago's Bobby Boyd tonight in what should be a free-swinging, action-crammed 10-rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Tonight's bout, televised nationally at 10 p. m. EST, replaces the originally scheduled title fight between Sugar Ray Robinson and middleweight champion Bobo Olson. It was postponed until Dec. 9 when Robinson injured an ankle in training.

Do you have the "Magic Touch?"

WIN!

New DODGE every year for the rest of your life!

Fabulous? No, it's fantastic! Each week for four weeks, somebody is going to win a brand spanking new Dodge every year for the rest of his or her life! It may be you!

What? A new Dodge EVERY YEAR?

That's right—as stated in the terms of the Contest Rules! If you are one of the weekly winners of the Grand Prize, you will take command of a new '56 Dodge right away! Next year, it will be exchanged for a new '57 Dodge, delivered to your door! The year after that, a new '58 Dodge . . . and so on for the rest of your life!

Do you have the "Magic Touch"?

Here's what you do. Visit our showroom today and discover the "Magic Touch" of Dodge push-button driving . . . the safest way to drive ever developed. Write a short driving safety slogan (3 to 10 words) on your "Magic Touch" entry blank. Fill it in, mail it. Yours may be selected!

Hollywood—here you come!

If your entry is selected for any one of the four weekly final contests, you will compete with two other contestants for a "DODGE FOR LIFE" on the popular Lawrence Welk Show from Hollywood, over a national television network. It will be fun! A few minutes after you appear on the show—you may be the winner of a new Dodge for life! (Naturally, you're Dodge's guest in Hollywood—all expenses paid, and what a time you will have!) Come on in today, and get started!

Okay Otto's Quiz

Q - What does the average used car buyer wants?
A - The average used car buyer does not want the lowest priced car in town — he wants the best buy in town.
Q - Where can you get the best buy in town?
A - At HARDENS "soon to be plowed under lot." Better get them before the Highway Dep't. covers them up with the new Rt. 23.

Best buys such as these.

We think you are a smart buyer. We have a 1953 Chev. Bel-Aire 2 dr that isn't the lowest priced car on the lot — But it is by far one of the best buys any where. Exterior is Conservative dark blue — with the outstanding Bel-Aire chrome treatment. Makes you look as important as you really are. Ribbed 2 tone seat upholstering and 2 toning on doors with dark blue Vinyl. — All seats foam rubber. Front and rear floor mats are lush carpeting. Fresh air heating keeps you warm and windows free of fog. Has clock, light in glove box, signal lights, fender skirts. Actual mileage — Scouts Honor, is 27023. — Priced at $1385.00, but look before you judge. Come out NOW.

Okay Otto's Quiz

Q - What does the average used car buyer wants?
A - The average used car buyer does not want the lowest priced car in town — he wants the best buy in town.
Q - Where can you get the best buy in town?
A - At HARDENS "soon to be plowed under lot." Better get them before the Highway Dep't. covers them up with the new Rt. 23.

Best buys such as these.

We think you are a smart buyer. We have a 1953 Chev. Bel-Aire 2 dr that isn't the lowest priced car on the lot — But it is by far one of the best buys any where. Exterior is Conservative dark blue — with the outstanding Bel-Aire chrome treatment. Makes you look as important as you really are. Ribbed 2 tone seat upholstering and 2 toning on doors with dark blue Vinyl. — All seats foam rubber. Front and rear floor mats are lush carpeting. Fresh air heating keeps you warm and windows free of fog. Has clock, light in glove box, signal lights, fender skirts. Actual mileage — Scouts Honor, is 27023. — Priced at $1385.00, but look before you judge. Come out NOW.

Bowl Bidding To Get Start This Weekend

Nation's Big 3 Teams Have Little To Fear Except Fear Itself

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The bowl hopefuls start getting the kids off the street this weekend in college football while the Big Three — Maryland, Oklahoma and Michigan — have nothing to fear but fear itself.

West Virginia, unbeaten, opens the bowl biding tonight against big, fast George Washington, the only team that could give the Mountaineers an argument for the Southern Conference title.

Florida and Boston College meet in the only other major game on tap tonight.

The big games for the bowl committees come Saturday — Georgia Tech-Tennessee, Mississippi State-Auburn, Duke-Navy, Southern Methodist-Texas A & M and Baylor-Texas. Except for the probationed Texas Aggies, any of these teams could get an invitation from the Sugar, Cotton or Gator bowls and they'll be scrappin' to get on the mailing list.

Maryland, Oklahoma and Michigan, ranked 1-2-3, have no such worries. Their reservations are in for Jan. 2.

Maryland and Oklahoma are shoo-ins for an Orange Bowl showdown as champs (although still uncrowned) of their respective Atlantic Coast and Big Seven Conferences. Michigan is ticketed for the Rose Bowl, where UCLA is confident of providing the opposition in the Big Ten-Pacific Coast battle.

Maryland and Oklahoma insist they don't have easy touches tomorrow.

Maryland opposes Louisiana State, which has a 1-4-1 record. Oklahoma, with a 25-game streak, opposes Missouri, which has a 1-game "string."

Michigan might find the Illinois troublesome in the traditional Big Ten squabble, but they could afford to lose one of their three remaining games and still get the Big Ten's blessing for the Rose Bowl. Only Ohio State and Michigan State challenge Michigan's right — but OSU is ineligible and MSC not only was beaten by the Wolves, but made a more recent Rose Bowl visit than Michigan.

The Southwest Conference winner usually gets one of the Cotton Bowl berths, but with Texas A&M, the leader, ineligible, the also rans get a chance. SMU needs this one to stay alive, but the Aggies are favored by one touchdown. Texas, favored by the same margin, could lose ground with a failure against Baylor.

Two other bowl candidates — Mississippi and Texas Christian — take it easy this weekend. Ol' Miss plays Memphis State. TCU is idle.

None of the other ranked teams looks for trouble tomorrow. Michigan State plays Purdue in a Big Ten game; UCLA meets College of the Pacific, and Notre Dame can afford to relax against Penn.

Ohio College Grid Teams Ready For Saturday Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Indiana's Hoosiers, who have a habit of beating the Bucks every four years, invade Ohio State's stadium tomorrow for the headliner of a 21-game weekend program for the state's college gridders.

Riding a three - game winning streak and a 3-3 record, Bernie Crimmins' Indiana hot-shots were slight underdogs for the game scheduled to start at a new time, 1:30 p. m. (est.) A crowd of 82,000-plus is expected.

Ohio faces the task of winning to protect the Big Ten co-leadership with Michigan's Wolverines, with whom the Bucks clash in the probable payoff Nov. 19 at Ann Arbor.

Accoring to the Hoosier timetable, it's Indiana's turn to win. The invaders were 32-10 victors here in the big upset of 1951; captured the 1947 game by 7-0, and the 1943 game by 20-14—but lost the in-between tilts. This is the fatal fourth year again—but Coach Woody Hayes is taking no chances against the underdogs and has drilled his Bucks long and intensely for the fray.

Running the Buck-Hoosier game a close second in the public eye is the Bowling Green-Miami clash at Oxford, with the Mid-American Conference title in the balance. Miami's defending champs will offer Tom Troxell and Tirrell Burton, one-three in rushing in the loop, against Jim Bryan of Bowling Green, the league's No. 1 passer, and Jack Hecker and Tom Kisselle, the two leading pass receivers.

Bryan, however, is a doubtful starter because of a knee injury suffered in practice Tuesday. Don Nehlen, Canton sophomore, may assume Bryan's quarterback chores.

Bowling Green, with a 6-0-1 record, has gained 2,587 yards and allowed 1,254 for the best mark in each division. Miami, with a 6-0-0 mark, has gained 2,217 and allowed 11,429 for second on offense and a third place tie on defense. The Redskins have outscored the foe 184 to 47, while Bowling Green has a 11 to 46 edge.

Also on the Saturday slate, with the won-lost-tied records of the Ohio teams, are:

Western Michigan at Ohio U. (3-3-0); Kent State (3-2-1) vs Toledo (2-3-1); Wooster (4-2-0) vs Mount Union (1-3-2); Hiram (4-2-0) vs Kenyon 0-6-0); Wittenberg (3-3-1) vs Capital 4-2-0); Oberlin (0-5-0) vs Akron (5-1-0); Denison (3-2-1) vs Muskingum (6-0-0); Defiance (0-6-1; vs Ashland (5-2-0); Findlay 4-2-0) vs Bluffton (3-4-0); John Carroll (3-1-0) vs Western Reserve (3-0-1); Baldwin Wallace (0-6-0) vs Ohio Wesleyan (3-3-0); Einboro State vs Case (1-2-0); Youngstown (3-3-0) vs Marshall; Cincinnati (1-3-2) vs Wichita; Xavier (5-2-0) vs Great Lakes; Heidelberg (7-0-0) vs St. Joseph; Bethany vs Marietta (0-6-0); Earlham vs Wilmington (3-3-1).

Dayton, with a 2-3-1 record, goes against Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass., in a Sunday contest.

3 Of Ohio's Top Ten Face Tough Battles

COLUMBUS (AP) — Seven of the top 10 high school football teams in the weekly Associated Press poll should have a fairly easy time this weekend.

But fourth-rated Columbus East, Jackson (No. 6) and Youngstown East (No. 9) appear to have a rough weekend on tap.

The capital city championship rides on the outcome of the Columbus East (7-0-0) vs Columbus North (5-1-1) contest.

With 25 consecutive wins, 7 this season, Jackson takes on Nelsonvile (5-1-1). And Youngstown East meets Campbell Memorial, a six-time winner until last week's 6-6 tie with Girard.

First place Canton McKinley, winner of seven straight, goes against Toledo Waite (3-3-1). Massillon's Tigers, seven-time state champs, hope to continue their second-place rating when they battle Barberton (3-2-2).

Games involving others in the top 10:

East Liverpool (3rd) 7-0-0, vs Salem 3-2-1; Mansfield (5th) 5-1-1, vs Portsmouth 3-4-0; Toledo Devilbiss (7th) 7-0-0, vs Charleston, W. Va., Stonewall Jackson 0-7-0; Springfield (8th) 6-1-0, vs Lima 1-6-0; Fremont Ross (10th) 7-0-0 vs Marion 3-4-0.

Dr. Sammy Lee Hangs Up Shingle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. Sammy Lee, former Olympic diving champion, has arrived from Colorado Springs to begin his practice as eye, ear and nose specialist in nearby Anaheim.

He and his family will move into their new home today. In an effort to buy a home in Garden Grove last July, Lee was rebuffed because of his Korean ancestry. A storm of protests and a flood of offers to buy elsewhere followed.

Ryder Cup Series Stirs High Interest

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Ryder Cup enthusiasm, a distinct novelty in this otherwise golf conscious desert resort, took over Palm Springs on the eve of the start of the 11th edition of the intersectional matches.

The nation's leading professionals compete here each winter. But the Ryder Cup series, pitting a select team of players from the British Isles and the United States, is something else again.

This is only the second time the series has been played on the West Coast since it was inaugurated in 1927.

Late today the rival captains, Chick Harbert of the defending Yankee team and Dai Rees of the British, announce the team personnel which will go into formal action Saturday and Sunday over Thunderbird's 6,843-yard, par-71 course.

Members of the British teams are Rees, Harry Weetman, Harry Bradshaw, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Johnny Fallon, John Jacobs, Arthur Lees, Christy O'Connor, and Sydney Scott.

The American team consists of Harbert, Sam Snead, Cary Middlecoff, Jack Burke Jr., Doug Ford, Jerry Barber, Marty Furgol, Ted Kroll, Tommy Bolt and Chandler Harper.

Robin Roberts and Don Newcombe were the only major league pitchers to hit the 20-game mark in victories during 1955. Roberts won 23 games and Newcombe 20.

Unplugged Guns Biggest Violation

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Division of Wildlife says hunting with unplugged guns was the most common violation the first week of the state's waterfowl season.

The season opened Oct. 18, and wildlife management agents arrested 70 violators—28 of whom had unplugged shotguns. Waterfowl hunters must use shotguns capable of holding three or fewer shells, Ohio wildlife rules provide.

Wildlife officials said 20 hunters were taken to court for shooting after hours and eight for having more than the daily bag limit.

Bowl Bidding To Get Start This Weekend

Nation's Big 3 Teams Have Little To Fear Except Fear Itself

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The bowl hopefuls start getting the kids off the street this weekend in college football while the Big Three — Maryland, Oklahoma and Michigan — have nothing to fear but fear itself.

West Virginia, unbeaten, opens the bowl biding tonight against big, fast George Washington, the only team that could give the Mountaineers an argument for the Southern Conference title.

Florida and Boston College meet in the only other major game on tap tonight.

The big games for the bowl committees come Saturday — Georgia Tech-Tennessee, Mississippi State-Auburn, Duke-Navy, Southern Methodist-Texas A & M and Baylor-Texas. Except for the probationed Texas Aggies, any of these teams could get an invitation from the Sugar, Cotton or Gator bowls and they'll be scrappin' to get on the mailing list.

Maryland, Oklahoma and Michigan, ranked 1-2-3, have no such worries. Their reservations are in for Jan. 2.

Maryland and Oklahoma are shoo-ins for an Orange Bowl showdown as champs (although still uncrowned) of their respective Atlantic Coast and Big Seven Conferences. Michigan is ticketed for the Rose Bowl, where UCLA is confident of providing the opposition in the Big Ten-Pacific Coast battle.

Maryland and Oklahoma insist they don't have easy touches tomorrow.

Maryland opposes Louisiana State, which has a 1-4-1 record. Oklahoma, with a 25-game streak, opposes Missouri, which has a 1-game "string."

Michigan might find the Illinois troublesome in the traditional Big Ten squabble, but they could afford to lose one of their three remaining games and still get the Big Ten's blessing for the Rose Bowl. Only Ohio State and Michigan State challenge Michigan's right — but OSU is ineligible and MSC not only was beaten by the Wolves, but made a more recent Rose Bowl visit than Michigan.

The Southwest Conference winner usually gets one of the Cotton Bowl berths, but with Texas A&M, the leader, ineligible, the also rans get a chance. SMU needs this one to stay alive, but the Aggies are favored by one touchdown. Texas, favored by the same margin, could lose ground with a failure against Baylor.

Two other bowl candidates — Mississippi and Texas Christian — take it easy this weekend. Ol' Miss plays Memphis State. TCU is idle.

None of the other ranked teams looks for trouble tomorrow. Michigan State plays Purdue in a Big Ten game; UCLA meets College of the Pacific, and Notre Dame can afford to relax against Penn.

Frank G. Mitzel is the 42nd president of the American Bowling Congress. Active in bowling for more than 30 years, Mitzel is secretary of the Detroit Bowling Assn.

Ohio College Grid Teams Ready For Saturday Tests

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Indiana's Hoosiers, who have a habit of beating the Bucks every four years, invade Ohio State's stadium tomorrow for the headliner of a 21-game weekend program for the state's college gridders.

Riding a three - game winning streak and a 3-3 record, Bernie Crimmins' Indiana hot-shots were slight underdogs for the game scheduled to start at a new time, 1:30 p. m. (est.) A crowd of 82,000-plus is expected.

Ohio faces the task of winning to protect the Big Ten co-leadership with Michigan's Wolverines, with whom the Bucks clash in the probable payoff Nov. 19 at Ann Arbor.

Accoring to the Hoosier timetable, it's Indiana's turn to win. The invaders were 32-10 victors here in the big upset of 1951; captured the 1947 game by 7-0, and the 1943 game by 20-14—but lost the in-between tilts. This is the fatal fourth year again—but Coach Woody Hayes is taking no chances against the underdogs and has drilled his Bucks long and intensely for the fray.

Running the Buck-Hoosier game a close second in the public eye is the Bowling Green-Miami clash at Oxford, with the Mid-American Conference title in the balance. Miami's defending champs will offer Tom Troxell and Tirrell Burton, one-three in rushing in the loop, against Jim Bryan of Bowling Green, the league's No. 1 passer, and Jack Hecker and Tom Kisselle, the two leading pass receivers.

Bryan, however, is a doubtful starter because of a knee injury suffered in practice Tuesday. Don Nehlen, Canton sophomore, may assume Bryan's quarterback chores.

Bowling Green, with a 6-0-1 record, has gained 2,587 yards and allowed 1,254 for the best mark in each division. Miami, with a 6-0-0 mark, has gained 2,217 and allowed 11,429 for second on offense and a third place tie on defense. The Redskins have outscored the foe 184 to 47, while Bowling Green has a 11 to 46 edge.

Also on the Saturday slate, with the won-lost-tied records of the Ohio teams, are:

Western Michigan at Ohio U. (3-3-0); Kent State (3-2-1) vs Toledo (2-3-1); Wooster (4-2-0) vs Mount Union (1-3-2); Hiram (4-2-0) vs Kenyon 0-6-0); Wittenberg (3-3-1) vs Capital 4-2-0); Oberlin (0-5-0) vs Akron (5-1-0); Denison (3-2-1) vs Muskingum (6-0-0); Defiance (0-6-1; vs Ashland (5-2-0); Findlay 4-2-0) vs Bluffton (3-4-0); John Carroll (3-1-0) vs Western Reserve (3-0-1); Baldwin Wallace (0-6-0) vs Ohio Wesleyan (3-3-0); Einboro State vs Case (1-2-0); Youngstown (3-3-0) vs Marshall; Cincinnati (1-3-2) vs Wichita; Xavier (5-2-0) vs Great Lakes; Heidelberg (7-0-0) vs St. Joseph; Bethany vs Marietta (0-6-0); Earlham vs Wilmington (3-3-1).

Dayton, with a 2-3-1 record, goes against Holy Cross at Worcester, Mass., in a Sunday contest.

3 Of Ohio's Top Ten Face Tough Battles

COLUMBUS (AP) — Seven of the top 10 high school football teams in the weekly Associated Press poll should have a fairly easy time this weekend.

But fourth-rated Columbus East, Jackson (No. 6) and Youngstown East (No. 9) appear to have a rough weekend on tap.

The capital city championship rides on the outcome of the Columbus East (7-0-0) vs Columbus North (5-1-1) contest.

With 25 consecutive wins, 7 this season, Jackson takes on Nelsonvile (5-1-1). And Youngstown East meets Campbell Memorial, a six-time winner until last week's 6-6 tie with Girard.

First place Canton McKinley, winner of seven straight, goes against Toledo Waite (3-3-1). Massillon's Tigers, seven-time state champs, hope to continue their second-place rating when they battle Barberton (3-2-2).

Games involving others in the top 10:

East Liverpool (3rd) 7-0-0, vs Salem 3-2-1; Mansfield (5th) 5-1-1, vs Portsmouth 3-4-0; Toledo Devilbiss (7th) 7-0-0, vs Charleston, W. Va., Stonewall Jackson 0-7-0; Springfield (8th) 6-1-0, vs Lima 1-6-0; Fremont Ross (10th) 7-0-0 vs Marion 3-4-0.

Dr. Sammy Lee Hangs Up Shingle

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Dr. Sammy Lee, former Olympic diving champion, has arrived from Colorado Springs to begin his practice as eye, ear and nose specialist in nearby Anaheim.

He and his family will move into their new home today. In an effort to buy a home in Garden Grove last July, Lee was rebuffed because of his Korean ancestry. A storm of protests and a flood of offers to buy elsewhere followed.

Ryder Cup Series Stirs High Interest

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Ryder Cup enthusiasm, a distinct novelty in this otherwise golf conscious desert resort, took over Palm Springs on the eve of the start of the 11th edition of the intersectional matches.

The nation's leading professionals compete here each winter. But the Ryder Cup series, pitting a select team of players from the British Isles and the United States, is something else again.

This is only the second time the series has been played on the West Coast since it was inaugurated in 1927.

Late today the rival captains, Chick Harbert of the defending Yankee team and Dai Rees of the British, announce the team personnel which will go into formal action Saturday and Sunday over Thunderbird's 6,843-yard, par-71 course.

Members of the British teams are Rees, Harry Weetman, Harry Bradshaw, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Johnny Fallon, John Jacobs, Arthur Lees, Christy O'Connor, and Sydney Scott.

The American team consists of Harbert, Sam Snead, Cary Middlecoff, Jack Burke Jr., Doug Ford, Jerry Barber, Marty Furgol, Ted Kroll, Tommy Bolt and Chandler Harper.

Robin Roberts and Don Newcombe were the only major league pitchers to hit the 20-game mark in victories during 1955. Roberts won 23 games and Newcombe 20.

Unplugged Guns Biggest Violation

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Division of Wildlife says hunting with unplugged guns was the most common violation the first week of the state's waterfowl season.

The season opened Oct. 18, and wildlife management agents arrested 70 violators—28 of whom had unplugged shotguns. Waterfowl hunters must use shotguns capable of holding three or fewer shells, Ohio wildlife rules provide.

Wildlife officials said 20 hunters were taken to court for shooting after hours and eight for having more than the daily bag limit.

Chief Says Traffic Laws Do Not Apply To Farm Machinery

Many Violators Escape Arrest Under Statutes

Merriman Points Out Drunk Driver May Operate Any Tractor

Circleville Police Chief Elmer Merriman declares that Ohio traffic laws have a loophole "large enough to drive a tractor through."

He thinks state legislators made a great mistake in not including farm machinery in traffic laws. He explained, for example, how an unsafe farm tractor can be driven around by a 10-year old boy, without violating the law, either by the age of the driver or condition of the tractor.

"The state law says so," the chief maintained. "Section 4513.02 says that laws pertaining to equipment and loads do not apply to 'implements of husbandry, road machinery, road rollers, or agricultural tractors, except as made applicable to such articles of machinery."

Merriman made it clear he was not aiming his protests at those who drive farm machinery with due regard for city motor and pedestrian traffic. His comments were stirred, instead, by the careless minority.

* * *

THE CHIEF called attention to the fact that farm machinery does not have to conform with the laws applying to loads. He explained that a farm tractor could pull several flat bed trailers loaded with straw without having the trailers securely fastened.

"We had a case here not long ago in which a trailer got loose and smashed into a parked car," the chief related. "There was $400 worth of damage, but there was nothing that could have been done if a farm tractor had been pulling the trailer."

The chief said he has made his feelings known to the Ohio Safety Council. In his letter to the state group, Chief Merriman pointed out "we use all the literature you send us but none of it can apply to farm machinery," He said this is an injustice.

"I can tell you of two examples where the law should apply to farm machinery," the chief said. "Both of these are from my own personal experience.

"A few years back, a farmer who lived near here was known to be a heavy drinker. One time we warned him that if we ever saw him driving a car we'd run him in for drunk driving.

"So what does he do? He goes and gets a farm tractor and drives to town. We saw him go from bar to bar getting drinks and driving. But we couldn't pick him up for drunk driving because he was on a farm tractor.

* * *

"JUST A couple of days ago, I saw a farm tractor going pretty fast through the outskirts of town. When I got close enough I could see the driver—a boy not more than 10 years old!

"There you are. And you don't need a driver's license to drive farm machinery. Anyone can drive a piece of farm machinery.

"You don't have to buy a license plate for farm machinery. But they still tear up the roads and it takes license plate tax money to pay for repairs."

Chief Merriman emphasized, at the same time, that most farm machinery drivers are law abiding and take care of their equipment.

Youthful Columbus Slayer's Case Slated To Go To Jury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state's first degree murder case against Robert Jacob Miller, 20, is expected to go to the Franklin County Criminal Court jury today.

It will be up to jurors to decide whether Miller willfully and knowingly hammered and hacked his parents to death, as the prosecution claims, or whether he was temporarily insane, as the defense contends.

To support its insanity contention, the defense yesterday summoned a Worthington psychiatrist to testify concerning Miller's mental status on the morning of Aug. 6. It was then police have said, that Miller murdered his mother, Mrs. Betty Thomas, 39, and stepfather, Gomer Thomas, 50.

Dr. Charles W. Harding, the psychiatrist, testified he interviewed Miller for an hour and 15 minutes on Oct. 27. He said Miller described the slaying "but gave no explanation as to a possible reason for it."

Dr. Harding further testified the defendant "could not have formulated an intent to kill, nor distinguish between right and wrong at the time because of his enraged mental state.

"The attack," said the psychiatrist, "gave all signs of a basic animal drive which destroys.'

Police have said that Miller used a claw hammer and two butcher knives to pound and slash his parents to death in their Columbus home Aug. 6. They said the slayings followed an argument in which Miller's mother objected to his dating a 16-year-old girlfriend.

Dr. Harding was possibly the last witness called for the defense. "If the defense calls another witness, it will be Robert J. Miller," the defendant's attorney, Roland G. Allen, told newsmen.

Allen's motion to dismiss the charges against his client was denied by Judge Myron B. Gessaman. The attorney claimed the prosecution had failed to prove premeditated murder.

Four other defense witnesses, Miller's relatives, testified about the youth's background. They said he had previous "difficulties" with the law that led to his imprisonment at Boys Industrial School, Lancaster, and Chillicothe Federal Reformatory.

2 Youths Accused In Wild Gunplay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Larry Betz, 18, and Richard Dudzinski, 17, both of Cleveland, have been charged with shooting to kill in a bullet-studded car chase with Westerville police.

After their capture yesterday, the youths admitted a Cleveland car theft, a Parma burglary and a Mount Vernon robbery, police said.

Knox County authorities have placed a detainer on the two in the $82 holdup of a Mount Vernon carryout, and officials of Middleburgh Heights have filed a detainer against the pair for investigation of a gun theft, police here said.

New York Central Seeks End To Units

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The New York Central Railroad yesterday asked the state utilities commission to let it discontinue four stations because they aren't taking in enough money to warrant expenses.

The stations are at Millfield (Athens County) and service would be available at Chauncey, 3 miles south; at Landgraf (Seneca County) and service would be north; at Hatton (Wood County) and service would be available at Fostoria, 7 miles south and at Peerless (Morrow County) and service would be available at Centerburg, 5 miles south.

Lima Employes Slated To Return

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—About 1,000 Ex-Cell-O Corp. employes here are expected to return to work today, ending a 52-day-old strike.

The employes, members of the CIO United Auto Workers, yesterday ratified a three-year contract. It included a package increase of 23½ cents hourly, and an annual wage increase. Pre-strike wages averaged about $2.10 an hour.

Local plant issues held up a settlement here as in Ex-Cell-O's three other plants at Fostoria, Ohio, and Detroit and Traverse City, Mich. A national contract agreement was reached Oct. 15.

Merriman Points Out Drunk Driver May Operate Any Tractor

Circleville Police Chief Elmer Merriman declares that Ohio traffic laws have a loophole "large enough to drive a tractor through."

He thinks state legislators made a great mistake in not including farm machinery in traffic laws. He explained, for example, how an unsafe farm tractor can be driven around by a 10-year old boy, without violating the law, either by the age of the driver or condition of the tractor.

"The state law says so," the chief maintained. "Section 4513.02 says that laws pertaining to equipment and loads do not apply to 'implements of husbandry, road machinery, road rollers, or agricultural tractors, except as made applicable to such articles of machinery."

Merriman made it clear he was not aiming his protests at those who drive farm machinery with due regard for city motor and pedestrian traffic. His comments were stirred, instead, by the careless minority.

THE CHIEF called attention to the fact that farm machinery does not have to conform with the laws applying to loads. He explained that a farm tractor could pull several flat bed trailers loaded with straw without having the trailers securely fastened.

"We had a case here not long ago in which a trailer got loose and smashed into a parked car," the chief related. "There was $400 worth of damage, but there was nothing that could have been done if a farm tractor had been pulling the trailer."

The chief said he has made his feelings known to the Ohio Safety Council. In his letter to the state group, Chief Merriman pointed out "we use all the literature you send us but none of it can apply to farm machinery." He said this is an injustice.

"I can tell you of two examples where the law should apply to farm machinery," the chief said. "Both of these are from my own personal experience.

"A few years back, a farmer who lived near here was known to be a heavy drinker. One time we warned him that if we ever saw him driving a car we'd run him in for drunk driving.

"So what does he do? He goes and gets a farm tractor and drives to town. We saw him go from bar to bar getting drinks and driving. But we couldn't pick him up for drunk driving because he was on a farm tractor.

"JUST A couple of days ago, I saw a farm tractor going pretty fast through the outskirts of town. When I got close enough I could see the driver—a boy not more than 10 years old!

"There you are. And you don't need a driver's license to drive farm machinery. Anyone can drive a piece of farm machinery.

"You don't have to buy a license plate for farm machinery. But they still tear up the roads and it takes license plate tax money to pay for repairs."

Chief Merriman emphasized, at the same time, that most farm machinery drivers are law abiding and take care of their equipment.

Youthful Columbus Slayer's Case Slated To Go To Jury

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The state's first degree murder case against Robert Jacob Miller, 20, is expected to go to the Franklin County Criminal Court jury today.

It will be up to jurors to decide whether Miller willfully and knowingly hammered and hacked his parents to death, as the prosecution claims, or whether he was temporarily insane, as the defense contends.

To support its insanity contention, the defense yesterday summoned a Worthington psychiatrist to testify concerning Miller's mental status on the morning of Aug. 6. It was then police have said, that Miller murdered his mother, Mrs. Betty Thomas, 39, and stepfather, Gomer Thomas, 50.

Dr. Charles W. Harding, the psychiatrist, testified he interviewed Miller for an hour and 15 minutes on Oct. 27. He said Miller described the slaying "but gave no explanation as to a possible reason for it."

Dr. Harding further testified the defendant "could not have formulated an intent to kill, nor distinguish between right and wrong at the time because of his enraged mental state.

"The attack," said the psychiatrist, "gave all signs of a basic animal drive which destroys.'

Police have said that Miller used a claw hammer and two butcher knives to pound and slash his parents to death in their Columbus home Aug. 6. They said the slayings followed an argument in which Miller's mother objected to his dating a 16-year-old girlfriend.

Dr. Harding was possibly the last witness called for the defense. "If the defense calls another witness, it will be Robert J. Miller," the defendant's attorney, Roland G. Allen, told newsmen.

Allen's motion to dismiss the charges against his client was denied by Judge Myron B. Gessaman. The attorney claimed the prosecution had failed to prove premeditated murder.

Four other defense witnesses, Miller's relatives, testified about the youth's background. They said he had previous "difficulties" with the law that led to his imprisonment at Boys Industrial School, Lancaster, and Chillicothe Federal Reformatory.

2 Youths Accused In Wild Gunplay

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Larry Betz, 18, and Richard Dudzinski, 17, both of Cleveland, have been charged with shooting to kill in a bullet-studded car chase with Westerville police.

After their capture yesterday, the youths admitted a Cleveland car theft, a Parma burglary and a Mount Vernon robbery, police said.

Knox County authorities have placed a detainer on the two in the $82 holdup of a Mount Vernon carryout, and officials of Middleburgh Heights have filed a detainer against the pair for investigation of a gun theft, police here said.

New York Central Seeks End To Units

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The New York Central Railroad yesterday asked the state utilities commission to let it discontinue four stations because they aren't taking in enough money to warrant expenses.

The stations are at Millfield (Athens County) and service would be available at Chauncey, 3 miles south; at Landgraf (Seneca County) and service would be north; at Hatton (Wood County) and service would be available at Fostoria, 7 miles south and at Peerless (Morrow County) and service would be available at Centerburg, 5 miles south.
